American Association of Law Libraries/LexisNexis®
Call for Papers Awards Program Application

Papers will be reviewed by the AALL/LexisNexis Call for Papers Committee. All decisions of this Committee are final. Submission constitutes permission by the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) to make the winning paper available on AALLNET and/or any AALL/ LexisNexis Call for Papers Committee website.

To be eligible for an award in the Open, New Member or Short Division, papers, together with all required supporting documents, must be submitted by March 1, 2013. To be eligible for an award in the Student Division, papers, together with all required supporting documents, must be received by May 15, 2013.

Papers may be submitted in any of the following categories:

- ☐ Open Division: Active and Retired AALL members who have been members for five or more years.
- ☐ New Members Division: Active and Retired AALL members who have been members of AALL for fewer than five years.
- ☐ Short Form Division: for AALL members. Articles in this category will be shorter than a traditional scholarly article, and appropriate for publication in AALL Spectrum, a bar journal, chapter or SIS newsletter.
- ☐ Student Division: Those enrolled in library school, information management school or the equivalent, or in law school, during the Fall 2012 or Spring 2013 semester. Entrants in the Student Division need not be members of AALL.
