VERONICA MACLAY STUDENT GRANT

Established by the Government Documents Special Interest Section this award honors Veronica Maclay who began her career as the government documents and serials librarian at the University of California Hastings College of the Law Library. Maclay was a strong advocate for the wide dissemination of government information through the Federal Depository Library program. This grant was established to encourage an interest in government documents and law librarianship in students who are attending library school who wish to attend the AALL Annual Meeting.

Maclay Grant Recipients

2014
No applicants.

2013
Antionette Vanterpool, Library Assistant II, University of Florida Legal Information Center

2012
Michelle Hook Dewey is the recipient of the Veronica Maclay Grant to attend the July 2012 AALL Meeting and CONELL in Boston. Michelle is a library student at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

2011
2011 Veronica Maclay Grant:
Valerie Carullo is the recipient of the Veronica Maclay Grant to attend the July 2011 AALL Meeting and CON ELL in Philadelphia Valerie is a student in the MLS program of St. John's University, New York, NY. Valerie is employed as the Government Resources librarian at the Mendik Library of New York Law School.

2010
The recipient of the 2010 Veronica Maclay Grant (to attend the July 2010 AALL Meeting & Conference and CONELL in Denver) was Kristina Lambright, of the University of North Texas Department of Library and Information Sciences. This year, the Grants Committee received a total of 6 applications for this grant.

2009
The Grants Committee of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Government Documents Special Interest Section (GD-SIS) has awarded a travel grant to Sabrina Sondhi of the University of Washington's Information School. The grant is in the amount of $1,000.00, to cover costs associated with attending the AALL Annual Meeting and Conference and the CONELL program in Portland.

2008
The Grants Committee of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Government Documents Special Interest Section (GD-SIS) has awarded a travel grant to Sabrina Sondhi of the University of Washington's Information School. The grant is in the amount of $1,000.00, to cover costs associated with attending the AALL Annual Meeting and Conference and the CONELL program in Portland.

2007

The Grants Committee of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Government Documents Special Interest Section (GD-SIS) has awarded a travel grant to Suzanne Barker Corriell, Circulation/Reference Librarian at the University of Iowa Law Library, and a student in the University of Iowa's School of Library and Information Science. The grant covers Suzanne's registration costs for the 100th AALL Annual Meeting and Conference and the CONELL program in New Orleans.

2006
The Grants Committee of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Government Documents Special Interest Section (GD-SIS) has awarded a travel grant to Jessica Gillespie, Senior Documents Assistant at NYU Law Library, and a student at Palmer School of Library and Information Studies at Long Island University. The grant covers Jessica's registration costs for the 99th AALL Annual Meeting and Conference and the CONELL program in St. Louis.

2005
The Grants Committee of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Government Documents Special Interest Section (GD-SIS) has awarded a $500 travel grant to Pegeen Mulhern, student at the University of Washington Information School, Seattle, WA, to attend the 98th AALL Annual Meeting and Conference in San Antonio, Texas.

2004
The Grants Committee of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Government Documents Special Interest Section (GD-SIS) has awarded a $500 travel grant to Erin Haggerty, student at the Catholic University of Americas School of Library and Information Sciences, Arlington, VA, to attend the 97th AALL Annual Meeting and Conference in Boston, Massachusetts.

2003
The Grants Committee of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Government Documents Special Interest Section (GD-SIS) has awarded a $400 travel grant to Jaye Anne Barlous, student at the Information School, University of Washington, to attend the 96th AALL Annual Meeting and Conference in Seattle, WA.

2002

2001
The Government Documents Special Interest Section of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL GD-SIS) is pleased to announce the winner of its 2001 Student Grant: Mr. Scott Matheson, student in the law librarianship program at the University of Washington Information School and intern at the Gallagher Law Library at the University of Washington. Mr. Matheson is especially interested in how changing business models in both the government and private sectors might reduce public access to vital government information. Attending the AALL Annual Meeting and Conference will provide Mr. Matheson the opportunity to learn about the law library profession outside the classroom.

2000
The Government Documents Special Interest Section of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL GD-SIS) is pleased to announce the winner of its 2000 Student Grant: Ms. Donna Nixon, J.D., currently enrolled in the M.L.S. program at the School of Information and Library Science, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and working as Graduate Assistant, Kathrine R. Everett Law Library, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. Ms. Nixon has been awarded $400 to attend the AALL Annual Meeting in Philadelphia this July. Ms. Nixon's strong interest in a career in law librarianship and in government information is reflected in her clerking experience in the Texas Attorney General's Office, her library school course work, and her role as Reference Assistant in the Everett Law Library.