

American Association of Law Libraries

MAXIMIZING THE POWER OF THE LAW LIBRARY COMMUNITY SINCE 1906

James E. Duggan
President, AALL

Director of the Law Library
and Associate Professor of Law
Tulane University Law School
6329 Freret Street
New Orleans, Louisiana 70118
504.865.5950
duggan@tulane.edu

July 25, 2008

The Honorable Zoe Lofgren
United States House of Representatives
102 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515-0516

Dear Representative Lofgren:

On behalf of the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL), I thank you for your strong commitment to improve funding for the Law Library of Congress through the introduction of H.R. 6589 this week. AALL strongly supports the Charles H.W. Meehan Law Library Improvement and Modernization Act, and we look forward to working with you to move your new bill through Congress this year. When enacted, H.R. 6589 will put the Law Library in a position to become the first-class library that Congress, legal researchers and members of the public deserve.

AALL is a nonprofit educational organization with over 5000 members nationwide who respond to the legal information needs of legislators, judges, and other public officials at all levels of government, corporations and small businesses, law professors and students, attorneys and members of the general public. Our members serve the information needs of the legal community and the public at more than 1900 academic, firm, state, court and county law libraries. AALL's mission is to promote and enhance the value of law libraries, to foster law librarianship and to provide leadership and advocacy in the field of legal information and information policy.

AALL is a strong champion of the Law Library, and we have been working closely for many years with the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on the Law Library of Congress to seek ways to improve its funding. We are very grateful for your initial support last fall that led to the invitation to our Immediate Past President, Ann T. Fessenden, and our ABA colleagues to testify at the October 24, 2007 Oversight Hearing on The Library of Congress before the Committee on House Administration.

In her statement, Ms. Fessenden noted the need for the Law Library to have adequate funding to develop and maintain its comprehensive and unique legal collections which include foreign and international materials essential to global commerce; to achieve timely cataloging and processing of all new materials; and to support the critical need to preserve its collection of over 65,000 rare and historic resources. Specifically, Ms. Fessenden noted that the Law Library must have necessary funds to maintain its journal subscriptions and purchase new treatises and to complete the K reclassification project. The rising costs of legal serials have forced the Law Library to cancel subscriptions, thus depriving users of important current legal information. In addition, she noted our long-standing concern that, due to lack of funding, approximately 680,000 volumes have not been moved into the K classification structure. Without such reclassification, these important resources, many of which are foreign legal documents, cannot be located within the Law Library's collections and therefore are not accessible to researchers and the public. Ms. Fessenden also recommended that the Committee consider authorizing a line item in the Federal budget.

We are very grateful to you, Rep. Lofgren, for hearing our concerns and those of our ABA colleagues and introducing the Charles H.W. Meehan Law Library Improvement and Modernization Act to address these long-standing problems. We believe the authorization of an additional $3.5 million for the Law Library in Sec. 2 is crucial so that cancelled subscriptions can be renewed, needed treatises can be purchased, and the reclassification project can move forward at a faster pace.

The authorization of the separate line item in Sec. 3 will allow the Law Librarian of Congress to have better control of the Law Library's own budget, decide how the annual appropriations are best spent and, very importantly, be directly accountable to the Congress. We believe an additional benefit will be a higher level of visibility for the Law Library, including with members of Congress and their staff. This provision is especially timely and, in our view, crucial to attracting well-qualified candidates in the search to replace Dr. Rubens Medina, Law Librarian of Congress, who retired at the end of June.

The establishment of the Charles H.W. Meehan Law Library Support Program in Sec. 4 will allow outside funding to be raised and provided to the Law Library for new enhanced services that are very important to legal researchers and the public. We are very grateful that AALL and the ABA are named as major stakeholders in the new Program.

Last but not least, I would also like to commend the excellent work of your Senior Legislative Council, Ms. Kate Christensen. She has worked tirelessly through multiple drafts of the bill and we are especially grateful for her frequent substantive communications with our Acting Washington Affairs Representative, Mary Alice Baish, throughout the bill drafting process this spring. AALL commends you for introducing this excellent and much-needed legislation. We are committed to working with you to ensure that H.R. 6589 is enacted this year. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "James E. Duggan". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

James E. Duggan
President
American Association of Law Libraries