

The American Association of Law Libraries is the ONLY organization dedicated exclusively to law librarians' needs and interests.

- ... a network of more than 5,000 law librarian colleagues
- ... a unified voice advancing your interests
- ... collective expertise
- ... shared resources
- ... outstanding educational opportunities

The strength of your profession at work for you.

Be a part of it.

For more information on membership in the American Association of Law Libraries, contact AALL by telephone at 312.939.4764, send e-mail to aallhq@aall.org, or visit AALLNET at <http://www.aallnet.org>.

American Association of Law Libraries

53 West Jackson Boulevard, Suite 940

Chicago, Illinois 60604

312.939.4674 • fax 312.431.1097

Connect with
Your Profession

... Contacts and Resources

... Advocacy

... Professional Development

American Association of Law Libraries

Staying connected is everything to a law librarian. It's the bridge between what you know, who you know, and where you go for information.

AALL is your personal connection to:

Professional Contacts

AALL Directory and Handbook

- The who, what, where, and how of your profession

AALLNET Web site

- With searchable membership database

Local and regional AALL Chapters

Advocacy

Washington Affairs Office

- Addressing your information policy concerns

Committee on Relations with Information Vendors (CRIV)

- Advocating your consumer issues with publishers

Citation Formats Committee

- Leading national acceptance of Universal Citation format

Information

Award-winning AALLNET Web site with:

- Complete Association information
- Searchable membership database
- Products and publications
- Links to more than 40 other legal information Web contacts

AALL Spectrum (monthly)

- Engaging articles by experts
 - CRIV Sheet Publisher News
 - Member Briefings on key issues

Law Library Journal (quarterly)

- Scholarly analysis and publication opportunities

AALL Resource Guides and Marketing Toolkit

- Promoting law librarians' value and helping management understand legal information challenges

AALL Biennial Salary Survey

- Competitive information on law library salaries nationwide
- Trend data on library budgets and staffing

Chapter support and leadership development

AALL Special Interest Sections

Specialized educational programs, newsletters, leadership, and networking opportunities focusing on:

Academic Law Libraries	Micrographics & Audiovisual
Computing Services	Online Bibliographic Services
Foreign, Comparative & International Law	Private Law Libraries
Government Documents	Research Instruction and Patron Services
Legal History and Rare Books	Social Responsibilities
Legal Information Service to the Public	State, Court & County Law Libraries
	Technical Services

STAY CONNECTED

WITH YOUR BEST

PROFESSIONAL

RESOURCE: AALL

Professional Development

AALL Annual Meeting

- Four days of learning, connections, collaboration
- THE national educational forum for law librarians

AALL Satellite Videoconferences

- Expert presenters covering important issues such as customer service and change management

Regional Education Programs

- Bringing professional development close to home on subjects such as:
 - Copyright in the Age of Technology
 - Legal Research for Librarians
 - Space and Technology Planning
 - Internet Train-the-Trainer courses

Placement Services

- Online job postings and Annual Meeting Placement Office

Financial support

- Scholarships and grants supporting continuing education and research

Awards

- Recognition for outstanding achievement in such areas as bibliography, marketing, distinguished service, research, and writing

