History and purpose

The Asian American Law Librarians Caucus (AALLc) was organized at the 1988 American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) Annual Meeting in Chicago by Mon Yin Lung. The purposes of the Caucus are:

- To provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and information on, and to represent its members' interests and concerns within AALL.
- To promote law librarianship and the study of Asian law.

- To develop and increase the effectiveness of Asian American law librarians.

- To foster cooperation among Asian American members of the profession.
- To provide for the further continuing education of Asian American law librarians.

Activities

AALLc sponsors thematic programs at the AALL Annual Meeting. It holds its business meeting at each AALL Annual meeting, which traditionally includes a social event held at an Asian restaurant, an educational program, and occasional tours of libraries and museums.

AALLc also supports the work of the Foreign, Comparative & International Law SIS' Asian Law Working Group, to facilitate access of Asian legal materials in both English and Asian vernacular languages.

AALLc keeps its members informed through its Blog, AALLc Link (<http://aallc.wordpress.com>) and Facebook posted on the AALLc Homepage at: <http://www.aallnet.org/caucus/aallc>. It has an electronic discussion forum and maintains an online members directory.

Committees

AALLc provides its members with ample opportunities to get involved through its various committees such as Bylaws, Communications & Publicity, Nominations, Membership & Mentoring, and Program.

Membership

Membership is open to any AALL member interested in the purposes of AALLc and does not require payment of dues or a donation.
