1. David Selden (DS) opened the Meeting with a welcome and distribution of a handout concerning the Tribal Law Collaborative Collection Development Project (TLCCDP).
2. Results of survey on Tribal Law Collaborative Collection Development Project (TLCCDP). DS talked about the handout that he distributed and talked a little about “best practices.”

Monica Martens (MM) talked about the TLCCDP survey that many at the meeting had received.

Faye Hadley (FH) mentioned that she would like to move ahead with a Uniform Tribal Legal Citations project.

DS mentioned that the National Indian Law Library (NILL) has developed a cumulative index for the Indian Law Reporter.

3. Sherri Thomas from UNM introduced herself and agreed to serve as the contact person between the NPLC and the AALL for the purpose of coordinating the events and needs for the 2007 Annual Meeting in New Orleans. Everyone welcomed Sherri and thanked her for taking on these responsibilities.
