

AALL-Chapter Alliance

VISION

AALL and the Chapters are united in a mutually supportive alliance to enhance the profession of law librarianship

FUNDAMENTAL BELIEFS

- Law Librarians serve an important role in society, and AALL and the chapters promote and enhance that role.
- Needs and interests of law librarians and law libraries are paramount in guiding the activities of AALL and the chapters nationally and regionally.
- AALL and the chapters work closely and collaboratively to meet the needs and interests of law librarians.
- Individual members of AALL and the chapters benefit by their participation in their professional organizations.
- Mutual respect and shared responsibility are key components of the relationship between AALL and the chapters.
- Frequent two-way communication is essential to the success and effectiveness of both the AALL and the chapters.

OBJECTIVES

AALL and the chapters will benefit their members by:

- Promoting the value of law librarians and libraries to employers and other users of legal information.
- Developing and ratifying public policy statements when it is essential for the profession to speak with one voice.
- Creating and supporting a variety of educational opportunities for members.
- Developing leaders and providing ongoing leadership training and support.
- Recruiting and retaining members and involving them in the AALL and chapter activities.
- Engaging in frequent and effective two-way communication.
- Creating, collecting and sharing information and resources of mutual benefit.
- Establishing effective governance structures and resources to support the AAll and the chapter alliance.
