

Joint Meeting Tuesday, January 20, 2004

Exploring the Future with Alice Calabrese

Alice earned her MLS at Dominican University in 1971 and has worked as a children's librarian, a public library administrator, and an academic librarian. She directed both the DuPage and Chicago Library Systems -- although not simultaneously -- and now she is serving as both the interim director of the Suburban Library System and the director of the Chicago Library System as she oversees their merger into one system.
