

Brown Bag Session - New Rules on Electronic Data Discovery

Only in place since December 1, these new federal rules impact the discovery process of electronically stored information - how it's prepared and stored. Some in the legal press think these rules will create a new practice area for law firms. Please join us to learn more about these rules from our speakers for this program:

Gretchen Van Dam, Circuit Court Librarian for the 7th Circuit, will discuss why the federal judiciary added these rules to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

Karen Zydron, Manager of Law Clerks at Skadden Arps, will discuss the impact the rules have on law firms and docket departments
