Chicago Association of Law Libraries

Introduction to Print Legal Materials: Cases, Statutes, Secondary Sources, and Looseleafs

Do you need a refresher course in print materials?
Have you been asked to use legal print materials for the first time?
Are you unsure of how to use a looseleaf service? Or a digest?

Come to one or both of two hands-on, interactive sessions in CALL's Continuing Education Committee's one-day program.

Presented by:
Julienne Grant, Reference Librarian, Loyola Law School -- Chicago
Brian Silbernagel, Reference Librarian, University of Chicago Law School
Tom Keefe, Computer Services Reference Librarian, John Marshall Law School
Gretchen Van Dam, Circuit Librarian, U.S. Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit

Only 25 participants allowed for each part of this program!

When:
March 21, 2006
Morning Session: Cases and Statutes, begins 9:00 a.m., ends 12:00 noon
Afternoon Session: Secondary Sources and Looseleafs, begins 1:00 p.m., ends 4:30 p.m.
(Registration for Morning and all-day: 8:30-9:00 am; Registration for Afternoon: 1:00-1:15 p.m.)

Where:
DePaul Law School's Rinn Law Library, 25 East Jackson Boulevard, 5th floor

Reserve a space:
To RSVP, email Raizel Liebler at 8Liebler@jmls.edu or call 312.987.1413 x430
Only 25 participants allowed per half day program.

Deadline:
The priority deadline for CALL members is March 10th, so register early!
The final deadline for CALL/SLA members is March 17th.

This event follows CALL No-Show and No Walk-In Policies

Cost:
$20 half day (Morning: Cases/Statutes; Afternoon: Secondary Sources/Looseleafs)
$35 whole day (both sessions)

Make checks payable to Chicago Association of Law Libraries.
Send to: Chicago Association of Law Libraries, P.O. Box 1767 Chicago, Il 60690
Please do not combine payment for any other event.

CALL Continuing Education Session – Introduction to Print Legal Materials
Tuesday, March 21, 2006
Reservation Form

Name_____

Organization name_____

Please circle: Member New Member Non Member Student

Check Enclosed Pay at Door