

The LLAGNY Education Committee Presents:

Business Law Research for Law Librarians; Part II Securities Law and Research

Tuesday April 11, 2006
Room # TBD
10 AM to 12 Noon

Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson
One New York Plaza
New York, NY 10004

Directions: Subway: W or R
To Whitehall St.; 4 or 5 to Bowling Green; 1 or 9 to Bowling Green
One New York Plaza, North East corner of Water and Whitehall Streets.

There is no charge for this program.

Class limited to 30 people

Please RSVP by April 5, 2006
To Andrew Tschinkel
atschink@courts.state.ny.us
718 298-1206

Light Refreshments at sign in.

Highlights of this presentation are:

A unique opportunity to learn the legal underpinnings of business law research and gain experience with research tools in a law firm setting.

During the two hour session participants will be introduced to basic securities law concepts and primary research tools. Lectures will be supplemented with a hands-on research exercise by experienced law librarians.

- Securities law: What is a security?
- The '33 Act and the '34 Act. Recent reforms to the securities laws (Sarbanes-Oxley, '33 Act reform) Primary and secondary securities law sources
- Interaction between corporate and securities law. Shareholder meetings, Mergers and takeovers, Corporate governance.
- This class will be most useful to students or new librarians.

PRESENTERS:

Craig Eastland (JD) is head of Reference at Fried Frank Harris Shriver & Jacobson LLP. Craig has ten years experience as a law librarian. Prior to joining Fried Frank he worked at McCarthy Tetrault in Toronto, Canada and Sullivan & Cromwell.

Lucy Redmond (MLS) is Manager of Reference Services at Sullivan & Cromwell LLP. Lucy has twenty five years experience as a law librarian. Prior to joining Sullivan & Cromwell she worked at Coudert Brothers.

Tracy Hesse (JD, MLS) is the Electronic Services Librarian at Fried Frank. Tracy has worked as a law librarian for two years. Prior to joining Fried Frank she worked at Greenberg Taurig.

Dagfinn Senturia (MLS) is a Reference Librarian at Fried Frank. Dagfinn has three years experience working as a law librarian.

--	--