

American Association of Law Libraries LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

April 1-2, 2016 • Hyatt Lodge • Oak Brook, Illinois

Lead Effectively.

Legal information professionals in the early stages of your career—maximize your leadership potential by attending the 2016 AALL Leadership Academy.

Discover how to build your personal leadership style while networking with your peers. An intensive learning experience designed to develop essential leadership skills, the program includes practical and interactive discussions, assessments, small group activities, and mini-presentations.

Areas of Focus

- Leadership models, concepts, and myths
- Effective and assertive communication techniques
- Leadership styles and approaches
- Strategies for difficult conversations
- Core leadership values
- Motivational leadership
- Influence and workplace ethics

Faculty

GAIL JOHNSON

PAM PARR

Face to Face Communications and Training

Gail Johnson founded Face to Face Communications and Training in 1997. She is a widely regarded leadership and communications expert and has designed and delivered thousands of workshops throughout the U.S.

Pam Parr joined Face to Face Communications and Training in 2005 bringing more than 30 years of business management and customer service experience.

Sought after speakers on leadership, they have led many programs for library organizations. Their sessions at the American Library Association and Public Library Association have been a draw for more than five years. At the 2015 AALL Annual Meeting in Philadelphia, Gail and Pam facilitated education sessions on leadership, workplace behavior, and motivating staff.

For more information and to apply, visit:

www.aallnet.org/main-menu/Education/leadership-academy

Applications are due by Wednesday, November 4, 2015.

American Association of Law Libraries