Find a Speaker, Be a Speaker

You are helping to plan an upcoming program, but you don't know who to invite as speakers. AALL's Speakers Directory can help. Visit www.aallnet.org/bureau for an alphabetical list of people interested in speaking at law librarianship programs. The individual listing also includes each speaker's area(s) of expertise.

If you are a speaker yourself, you can post your name and expertise so AALL members know that you're willing to share your services. In addition, the site includes additional resources on finding speakers. Be sure to use this directory in your future program planning.

VALUABLE TOOL FOR JOB SEEKERS AND EMPLOYERS

If you're looking for the next step in your law library career or looking for high-quality candidates to fill open positions in your law library, be sure to visit the AALLNET Job Hotline (www.aallnet.org/hotline/hotline.asp). Online you can:

- Browse current listings
- Search archived jobs
- Post an open position
- Subscribe to the RSS feed.

SUBMIT YOUR PHOTOS FOR DAY IN THE LIFE CONTEST

Don't miss out on the 2009 Day in the Life Photo Contest. This month, AALL members will take a wide range of photographs of law librarians working, meeting, teaching, and doing all that law librarians do in a given day.

Winners will be recognized on AALLNET, in the July 2009 issue of AALL Spectrum and during the AALL Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C.

Visit www.aallnet.org/dayinlife for contest details, to upload your photo submissions, and to view winners from 2005, 2007, and 2008. Submit your photos today!
