CONTINUING THE CALL FOR PAPERS

Have you been thinking of writing an article of interest to law librarians? The AALL/LexisNexis Call for Papers Committee has just the incentive to get you started. The committee is soliciting articles in three categories:

Open Division: for active and retired AALL members and law librarians with five or more years of professional experience

New Members Division: for recent graduates and AALL members who have been in the profession for less than five years

Student Division: for students in library, information management, or law school. Participants in this division need not be AALL members. To submit in this category, you must have been enrolled in law school, library school, or information management or an equivalent program either in the fall 2008 or spring 2009 semester.

Articles in the Open and New Members Divisions must be submitted by March 2. Articles in the Student Division must be submitted by April 15.

The winner in each division receives $750 generously donated by LexisNexis, plus the opportunity to present the winning paper at a program at the 2009

AALL Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C. Winning papers are also considered for publication in the Association's prestigious Law Library Journal.

For more information, a list of previous winners, an application, and instructions on how to submit your article, visit AALLNET at www.aallnet.org/about/award_call_for_papers.asp.
