

Thank you for completing this short survey. The results will help the Library better prepare to support your learning and research while a student at the University of Chicago Law School. We appreciate your time and input.

1. What is your home country?

2. Which of the following describes how law is created in your home country?

- By legislative and/or administrative/regulatory bodies
- By judges or courts
- Combination of the above
- Other, please describe

Other (please specify)

3. Which of the following describes your current work?

- Student
- Faculty/instructor/teacher
- Practicing attorney
- Government
- Other, please specify

Other (please specify)

4. Please describe your prior experience researching or working with the laws of the United States.

- No experience
- Little experience
- Moderate experience
- Extensive experience

5. If you have worked with or researched the laws of the United States, please select those categories below with which you have experience. (Please skip this question if you answered - no experience - above.)

- U.S. Federal Court Opinions (e.g. Supreme Court, U.S. Circuit Courts, District Courts)
- U.S. Federal Legislation (e.g. United States Code, Acts of Congress)
- U.S. State Court Opinions
- U.S. State Legislation (e.g. New York Legislature, Illinois General Assembly)
- U.S. Federal Administrative/Regulatory Law (e.g. Code of Federal Regulations, Federal Register)
- U.S. State Administrative Law
- Other, please specify

6. The D'Angelo Law Library offers opportunities for LLM students to learn U.S. legal research for their coursework, writing papers and post-graduation work. After completing the LLM program, do you anticipate that you will need to research the laws of the United States in your legal practice or in other work?

- Yes
- No
- Maybe

7. Do you have experience using the online legal database, Westlaw?

- Yes
- No

8. If yes, for how long have you used Westlaw? (Please skip this question if you answered - no - above.)

- Several weeks
- Several months
- One to two years
- Several years

Other, please explain:
Other (please specify)

9. Do you have experience using the online legal database, LexisNexis?

- Yes
- No

10. If yes, for how long have you used LexisNexis? (Please skip this question if you answered - no - above.)

- Several weeks
- Several months
- One to two years
- Several years
- Other, please explain:
Other (please specify)

11. Please give the names of other online legal databases you have used.

12. For those databases listed in your response to question 11, which do you anticipate needing as an LLM student?

13. Please describe the legal topics/areas of law (e.g. intellectual property, corporations) which you plan to focus on during your studies at the University of Chicago Law School.

14. When researching or reviewing law materials, how do you usually work?

- With books
- With a computer
- Combination of both books and a computer
- Other

Other (please specify)

15. The Library will be scheduling sessions for you on legal research and resources. Please provide any comments or suggestions you wish to make about how the Library can better address your needs as an LLM student.