

Making Legal Scholars Bloom with ORCID

Christine Anne George

For more information please see my RIPS blog post A Rose is a Rose is a Rose...Until Rose Registers for ORCID

What is ORCID?

ORCID (Open Researcher and Contributor ID) creates a persistent digital identifier that links a researcher to their scholarship. Researchers are assigned a 16 digit number and can maintain a profile on ORCID's site.

The screenshot shows the ORCID profile of Christine Anne George. The profile includes a biography, education history, employment history, and a list of works. The ORCID ID is 0000-0002-8480-7172.

Christine Anne George
ORCID ID
0000-0002-8480-7172

Biography
Christine Anne George is a law librarian and certified archivist. Her research interests are legal protection for archival collections and methods for calculating scholarly impact.

Education (3)

- Bard College: Annandale-on-Hudson, NY, United States
B.A., American Studies
Source: Christine Anne George Created: 2014-09-27
- St. John's University School of Law: Jamaica, New York, United States
J.D.
Source: Christine Anne George Created: 2014-09-27
- University of Texas at Austin School of Information: Austin, TX, United States
M.S.I.S.
Source: Christine Anne George Created: 2014-09-27

Employment (3)

- University at Buffalo - North Campus: Amherst, NY, United States
2012 to present (Charles B. Sears Law Library)
Archivist & Faculties Services Librarian
Source: Christine Anne George Created: 2014-09-27

Works (4)

- Litigation Planning
Journal for the Society of North Carolina Archivists
2014 | journal-article
Part of SSRN: 2756813
URL: <http://search.ebscohost.com/login.aspx?direct=true&db=lih&AN=96121589&site=e...>
Source: Christine Anne George Preferred source
- Pondering Privilege: What Would Archival Privilege Look Like and How Would We Get It?
2013 SAA Research Forum
2014 | conference-paper
SSRN: 2719225
URL: <http://files.archivists.org/pubs/proceedings/ResearchForum2013/George-ResearchF...>
Source: Christine Anne George Preferred source
- Archives beyond the pale: Negotiating legal and ethical entanglements after the Belfast Project
American Archivist
2013 | journal-article

Register for ORCID

Individual researchers can register at <https://orcid.org/register>.

ORCID profiles include

Biography
Name variations
Education
Employment
Works
Funding
Websites & Other IDs

Why ORCID?

It's yours and travels with you
It's compatible with other metrics gathering systems/databases
It's a definitive record of your work—all your work