

2004-2005 SCCLL-SIS Education Committee Report

The Education Committee met at the AALL annual meeting in Boston to discuss program ideas for the 2005 meeting in San Antonio. 12 program proposals were submitted to the committee and 5 were accepted for the annual meeting. Programs: 1. May it Please the Court: Strategies for Discovering What Pro Se Services Judges Crave. -Judith Flader 2. Improvinig Your Virtual Reference Service. -Sarah Sabasteanski 3. The Great Disappearing Act: Preserving URL's Cited in Judicial Opinions. -Barbara Golden 4. Not Just for Bedtime Anymore: Using Storytelling Skills as a Leadership Tool. -Jean Holcomb 5. Short Cuts to Safer Keyboarding. -Susanne Pierce Dyer. One independent program submission was accepted from a SCCLL member –6. Beating the Bedroom Blues: How to Give Better Presentations. -Amy Hale-Janeke

My thanks for the hard work of the committee, which included Kristie Randall, Edward Carroll, Patricia Lopez, Sandy Marz, and Coral Henning, and all those who submitted programs or gave constructive criticism of those programs to help them succeed.

Marcus Hochstetler, Chair
Mahoning Law Library Association