

Assignment 1: Secondary Materials for International Legal Research [IFLR—Fall 2002]
Due Sept. 17, 2002

For the treaties listed below, use a secondary source to locate their appropriate citations. Indicate the citation and the source where you found it. For example, if you found it in a journal article, indicate the full cite for the article. If you found it in a book, indicate the title of the book and the section or chapter where the cite appeared. If you found it by searching secondary sources online, indicate the service, database, and search used to locate the citation. HINT: Remember the “Table of Treaties” sections that are published in some of the Nutshells. You do not need to repeat the name of the treaty in the citation: just provide the correct citation for the publication in which the convention appears and the year of publication.

In the second part of this assignment, you will need to consult periodical indices to locate the citations for the listed journal articles. Answers can be located in the following index titles:

- Public International Law
- Index to Foreign Legal Periodicals
- Index to Canadian Legal Periodicals

CITATIONS TO JOURNAL ARTICLES MUST BE IN PROPER BLUEBOOK CITATION FORMAT. Where available, I have provided the full names of the articles' authors. In Question 3, you may use the first initials of the authors, since the CWSL Library does not carry the publication in which this article appears. Remember—the format which appears in the indexes is not necessarily correct Bluebook format.
