

REEL TO REEL: LABOR & EMPLOYMENT LAW TRIVIA

1. Was it a binding contract when a Japanese company promised a raise upon delivery of 1000 cars to the workers of an auto factory? Name this 1986 film and the actor who played the liaison between employees and management.
2. In the 1980 film, 9 to 5, sexual harassment and sex based discrimination were the normal operating procedure. Name the trio who kidnapped their boss. Extra points if you can name his character and the actor who portrayed him.
3. Sally Field could have used the NLRB in this 1979 film as she became involved in union organizing. Name the film.
4. This 2005 film was based on a real class action sexual harassment claim. Name the film and the actress star. Extra points for naming the actor who portrayed her attorney.
5. It all came down to a proposed 7 ½ cent hourly wage increase at this factory and musical from 1957. Name the film and the actress who headed the grievance committee.
6. In this 1993 film, an attorney with AIDS filed suit against his firm for wrongful termination and employment discrimination. Name the film and the Oscar winning actor who played the lawyer. Extra points if you can name the actor who played his reluctant attorney.
7. In this 1994 film a male filed a sexual harassment claim against his female boss. Name the film and the actor who played the lead and the actress who was his boss. Extra points if you can name the head of the technology company who was backing his female protégé all the way.
8. Whistle blowing can be dangerous as depicted in this 1983 film about dangerous practices at a nuclear plant. Name the film and the actress who played the lead character.
9. Is it sexual harassment if the subordinate willingly and eagerly complies? Name this quirky 2002 film with the kinky lawyer boss and unstable subordinate. Extra points if you can name the actor and actress who played the lead characters.
10. Sigorney Weaver did not have legal legs to stand on when she tried to fire her creative subordinate in this 1988 film. Name the film and the actress who played the lead.

ANSWERS:

1. Gung Ho & Michael Keaton
2. Jane Fonda, Dolly Parton, Lily Tomlin (extra)Franklin Hart–Dabney Coleman
3. Norman Rae
4. North Country – Charlize Theron (extra)Woody Harleson
5. Pajama Game & Doris Day
6. Philadelphia & Tom Hanks (extra)Denzel Washington
7. Disclosure & Michael Douglas & Demi Moore (extra)Donald Sutherland
8. Silkwood & Meryl Streep
9. Secretary (extra)James Spader & Maggie Gyllenhal
10. Working Girl & Melanie Griffith