

Anatomy of a Citation PowerPoint

by Pamela Melton

Learning proper citation format seems daunting to most law students. This PowerPoint was developed for a series of training sessions offered to faculty research assistants. It attempts to break down the basics of the most important citation formats that students should know. It also reminds them what the purpose of legal citation is and offers tips on using the Blue Book to create citations for sources not covered in the lesson."