Law Library Mission Statement

To provide access to the legal information necessary to support the mission of St. Thomas University School of Law by acquiring assets providing comprehensive citation retrieval and the ability to deliver the full text of the documents cited; to support the teaching and research programs of the school of law through direct, continuing and informed relationships with faculty and through programs that educate students about the use and cost of all formats of legal information; to provide access to legal information and publications for St. Thomas University, as a whole.

Providing the legal research skills and resources today to the lawyers and leaders of tomorrow!
REFERENCE
The librarians at the law library are available to assist you with your legal research needs, including answering research questions, locating resources in the library, aiding in the creation of research strategies for individuals, and providing legal research training to students. If you have any questions or comments for our librarians, please call the reference desk at (305) 623-2331 or the Faculty and Student Services Librarian at (305) 623-2339.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN
The law library will acquire resources that are not available on campus with the interlibrary loan service. Interlibrary loan is available to university faculty, staff, and students. Requests for interlibrary loan can be made by either filling out a paper form available at the reference desk or an online form at www.stu.edu/lawlib. If you have any questions or comments about interlibrary loan please call (305) 623-2368.

COURSE RESERVE
Materials placed on hold by a professor for particular courses are available behind the reference desk arranged by professors’ name. Course reserve materials can be checked out for four hours and must stay in the library.

AUDIO-VISUAL/MEDIA
The law library prides itself on meeting your audiovisual and media needs. To do this successfully we must have all requests for media equipment at least 24 hours in advance via the online form. The Form is available at www.stu.edu/lawlib. If you have any questions or comments about the audio visual equipment or request process please call the Multimedia/Public Services librarian at (305) 474-2428.

E-RESEARCH
The law library provides access to several electronic databases at www.stu.edu/lawlib. If you have e-research questions please call (305) 623-2339 or the reference desk at (305) 623-2331.

FACULTY SERVICES
The faculty services librarian provides the law school faculty with scholarly research support. The faculty services librarian is also available to assist with class room instruction and training faculty research assistants. If you have any questions or comments for the faculty services librarian please call (305) 623-2339.

CIRCULATION
The St. Thomas University law library is home to over 335,000 legal and non legal volumes and volume equivalents. To locate a particular volume please utilize Tomcat, the online library catalog, at www.stu.edu/lawlib. Please note that circulation of most library items is only available to university faculty, staff, and students. Other individuals may use the law library materials, but will be restricted to using the items in the library. If you have any questions or comments for our circulation staff they can be reached at (305) 623-2332 during the library’s hours of operation.
