

SAT. 7/25 3:00PM — LAWBERRY CAMP

2009 AALL ANNUAL MEETING AND CONFERENCE

Date/Time: Sat, Jul 25 3:00pm - 6:00pm

Location/Room: WCC-Room 156

The goal of Lawberry Camp is to encourage member participation and professional development outside of the traditional conference format. Everyone who attends is encouraged (but not required) to share their knowledge and guide the conversations to topics of their interest. So, whereas in a traditional conference attendees sit and listen to a speaker, at Lawberry Camp you will have the opportunity to share what you know. Bring your ideas and a willingness to share them (or a sense of curiosity and an interest in asking questions). But just so you know...this is a PowerPoint Free Zone. The only technology we will have are magic markers and flip charts. If you have handouts or other "show and tell" type items, feel free to bring them, but just know that we might not talk about your topic. What will we talk about? Any topic is fair game as long as it's somehow related to law librarianship.

For full details and registration: <http://lawberrycamp.com>