UPCOMING WEBINARS

RECOGNIZING AND RESOLVING DISCRIMINATION IN THE WORKPLACE

Date: Thursday, April 29, 2021 (11am - 12pm US/Central)

Do you know how to identify and deal with at-work discrimination that may harm you, your colleagues, or your institution? Are you facing racial or other types of discriminatory practices in your workplace? It may be difficult to decipher microaggressions or other subtle yet harmful forms of racism or discrimination, or to effectively recognize and remedy these behaviors in ourselves and others. While workplace provisions may be in place, it can be challenging for those impacted to navigate the process. This webinar will provide attendees an opportunity to learn about the personal, practical, and legal aspects of dealing with discriminatory practices in the workplace. Employees, especially managers will learn strategies to handle and to prevent the missteps that lead to legal disputes based on discriminatory practices.

LEARNING FROM THE LIBRARIAN LEADERSHIP LANDSCAPE

Date: Thursday, May 20, 2021 (11am-12pm UC/Central)

This program will feature a moderated panel of library leaders—from the legal landscape and beyond—who will share their perspective and experience on leadership over the course of their careers. Their “leadership stories” will give AALL members insight into what skills are essential to manage complex organizations with varying departmental needs, how they’ve implemented innovative services and programs to achieve organizational success, and how the pandemic has affected them as leaders.
