

PowerPoint Presentation and Handout, “Researching State Legislative History”

By Jennifer Morgan

I created this presentation (with accompanying handout) on State Legislative History research so that I could demonstrate how to undertake research and show the disparity of resource availability by state. I included both commercial sources and free government and academic resources.