Introduction

The purpose of this handbook is to offer guidelines to the officers, committee chairs, and other members of the Technical Services Special Interest Section (TS-SIS). TS-SIS is one of the largest special interest sections in the American Association of Law Libraries (AALL). TS-SIS has five standing committees, plus a varying number of administrative committees, ad hoc committees, and roundtables. In addition to their activities during the year, TS-SIS entities meet during the AALL annual meeting.

The Executive Board consists of the Chair, the Vice Chair/Chair-elect, the Past Chair, the Secretary/Treasurer, two members-at-large, and the chairs of the five standing committees (Acquisitions, Cataloging and Classification, Preservation, Professional Development, and Serials).

A copy of the current TS-SIS Bylaws (revised July 18, 2016 by TS-SIS members) and more specific policies, practices or projects related to section activities are included.

Other Positions and Activities

Electronic Discussion Forum

The TS-SIS online discussion forum provides a way for members and other information professionals to communicate with each other frequently, widely and quickly.

AALL maintains the online discussion forum for TS-SIS. A TS-SIS member is appointed as discussion forum manager for a two-year, renewable term. General information about subscribing, posting, etc. is maintained at the AALL website (www.aallnet.org).

The forum is available to members only. Members' complete contact information is not available to non-members. The list is "auto-populated" once a year (meaning that all TS-SIS members who have supplied an e-mail address to AALL will be automatically subscribed to the list). Advertisements or promotions of any non-AALL sponsored program, service or product may be posted to the forum only once.

The discussion forum manager:

- Advises subscribers who have questions or problems regarding use of the online discussion forum.
- Maintains filters that prevent non-members from posting.
- Resolves problems that may occur as a result of the annual auto-population of subscribers.
- Contacts the appropriate personnel at AALL headquarters as needed.
- Communicates with the TS-SIS Executive Board about issues or policies regarding the forum.
- Reports briefly on the online discussion forum at the TS-SIS business meeting.
- Submits a written report to the TS-SIS Chair detailing the manager's activities according to the deadline set by the Chair each year.

OBS and TS FROG (Funding Research Opportunities Grant) Committee

Since 1997 OBS-SIS and TS-SIS have joined together to provide funding for grants for technical services law librarians to perform research that will enhance law librarianship. The FROG (Funding Research Opportunities Grant) Committee is comprised of six (6) members: the chair, a representative-at-large, two representatives from OBS-SIS, and two representatives from TS-SIS. Each representative serves for two years. Representatives are appointed in alternate years so that terms are staggered. The chair is appointed in odd-numbered years by the OBS-SIS and TS-SIS chairs, in consultation with one another. The chair must be a member of both sections. The representative-at-large must be a member of AALL, need not be a member of TS or OBS, and is selected by the FROG chair in her first year to serve a two-year term.

The chair:

- Follows the guidelines and procedures on the OBS-SIS FROG Committee Information website.
- Consults with the executive boards of OBS-SIS and TS-SIS to determine the actual amount of funds to be made available for research grants each year.
- Promotes the research grants program through notices to the OBS-SIS and TS-SIS online discussions lists at least twice a year, notices in TSLL at least once a year, and a permanent presence on the OBS-SIS and TS-SIS websites.
- Maintains and revises the grant application form, as needed.
- Follows up with grant recipients to see that the required reports are filed, and that goals of the grant have been achieved.
- Submits a written report to both the OBS-SIS and TS-SIS chairs detailing the committee's activities according to the deadline set by the chairs each year.
- Reports briefly on the committee's activities at the OBS-SIS and TS-SIS business meetings.

Representatives

AALL appoints official representatives to other law- and library-related associations in order to promote librarianship, increase the usefulness of law libraries, cultivate the science of law librarianship, and develop connections with groups sharing similar interests. A roster of organization representatives is at: <http://www.aallnet.org/main-menu/Leadership-Governance/representatives/>. The Representatives Handbook is at <http://www.aallnet.org/main-menu/Leadership-Governance/representatives/RepresentativesHandbook.pdf>.

Although representatives are responsible to AALL as a whole, some special interest sections have been designated "oversight bodies" for the representatives to groups that have missions and goals that fall within their areas of interest.

TS-SIS is the oversight body for representatives to:

- ALA ALCTS/CC:DA Committee on Cataloging: Description and Access
- ALA ALCTS/CCS Subject Analysis Committee

TS-SIS and OBS-SIS together form the joint oversight body for a representative to:

- ALA ALCTS/MAC

The TS-SIS Executive Board:

- Submits recommendations to the AALL Executive Board for persons to fill vacancies in the representative positions named above.
- Proposes the creation of new representative relationships to the AALL Executive Board, as appropriate. (See Related Document V, "AALL Representatives to External Organizations that Liaise with TS-SIS.")
- Proposes the discontinuance of a representative relationship to the AALL Executive Board, as appropriate.

The representatives:

- Submit written annual reports for TSL and/or the TS-SIS online discussion forum (ts-sis@aallnet.org).
- Arrange to have their reports posted on the TS-SIS website.
- Distribute printed copies of the reports at the TS-SIS annual business meeting.
- Present oral reports at the TS-SIS annual business meetings or at the meeting of the TS-SIS committee most closely related to their subject.

Roundtables

Each Standing Committee chair may call roundtables. Roundtables do not execute any duties, but simply meet to discuss issues of current interest. The topic(s) may be open, or the roundtable facilitator might announce an agenda in advance, or the chair of a standing committee might request that a certain topic be discussed, especially if a complicated issue was not resolved during that standing committee's allotted meeting time.

Roundtable facilitators are appointed by the committee chairs listed below, by November 1, for the following summer's annual meeting. An appointment letter is sent to each coordinator by the committee chair who appointed him/her, with a copy to the TS-SIS Chair. Facilitators serve one-year, renewable terms. Alternatively, a standing committee chair may choose to act as facilitator for a roundtable associated with that committee.

Roundtables that have met include:

- Acquisitions Roundtable (facilitator appointed by the chair of the Acquisitions Committee).
- Cataloging & Classification Roundtable (facilitator appointed by the chair of the Cataloging & Classification Committee).
- Heads of Cataloging in Large Libraries Roundtable (facilitator appointed by the chair of the Cataloging & Classification Committee).
- Heads of Technical Services Roundtable (facilitator appointed by the TS-SIS Chair).
- Management issues (facilitator appointed by the TS-SIS Chair).
- New Law Catalogers Roundtable (facilitator appointed by the chair of the Cataloging & Classification Committee).
- Preservation and Binding Roundtable (facilitator appointed by the chair of the Preservation Committee).
- Web Site Advisory Roundtable (facilitator: TS-SIS webmaster)

Facilitators:

- Contact TS-SIS members who attended previous roundtables, to solicit ideas for discussion.
- Promote the roundtable through TSLL and the online discussion forum (ts-sis@aallnet.org).
- Work closely with the chair of the standing committee that has similar interests, to provide input and feedback, or continue unfinished business of that committee.
- Take attendance at the meeting of the roundtable and moderate the discussion.
- Take notes about possible ideas and volunteers for TS-SIS projects or educational programs, and communicate these to the appropriate TS-SIS officers.

TSLL Editorial Board

Technical Services Law Librarian (TSLL) is produced jointly with OBS-SIS. A new issue is posted quarterly on the TS-SIS website, with a direct link from the OBS-SIS website.

Two representatives from TS-SIS serve on the TSLL Editorial Board, and are appointed by the incoming TS-SIS Chair before the annual meeting. They serve two-year staggered terms, receiving their initial appointments in alternate years.

The representatives:

- Attend the TSLL Editorial Board meeting that is held during the AALL Annual Meeting.
- Monitor TSLL content and advise the editor-in-chief to assure that editorial policies are being followed.
- Assist the editor-in-chief with TSLL policy decisions.
- Represent the interests of TS-SIS members as these relate to TSLL content and practices.
- Participate with other members of the Editorial Board in the recruitment of applicants and the selection of a new editor-in-chief, associate editor, and/or layout and design editor, when a vacancy occurs in any of these positions.
- Review TSLL policies and procedures and suggest revisions to the editor-in-chief.

For policies and procedures concerning TSLL, see TSLL Structure and Policies.

Website

The TS-SIS website is an essential resource for disseminating information about the section in a widely accessible and timely manner. TS-SIS maintains its website on AALLNET. A webmaster is appointed by the TS-SIS Chair when a vacancy occurs.

The webmaster:

- Follow the guidelines for AALL Committee, SIS and Chapter webmasters, available on the AALL website (www.aallnet.org).
- Coordinates with the TS-SIS member at large who is designated as the webmaster liaison regarding anything to be added to, revised or deleted from the website.
- Convenes the Web Site Advisory Roundtable at the AALL annual meeting, where interested members exchange ideas for improving the TS-SIS website.

- Attends any other events for webmasters held during the AALL annual meeting.
- Communicates with the TS-SIS Executive Board about issues or policies regarding the website.
- Submits a brief annual report to the TS-SIS Chair summarizing activity on the website.

General policies and procedures:

- New or revised content should be provided to the webmaster in electronic format.
- Whenever possible, the webmaster will be notified in advance if time-critical content is to be added to the website.
- The content of the website shall include: Names and contact information of current TS-SIS officers and chairs; TS-SIS Bylaws and Handbook; announcements (e.g., awards, elections, meeting schedules); reports (e.g., representatives reports, strategic plans); links to TSLL; link to the AALL's website.
- Any change in the scope of the website must be approved by the TS-SIS Executive Board, which would also consider whether more than one webmaster is needed for such a change.

TS-SIS Chair

An exception to this policy may be made if the member is a scheduled speaker at an educational program, workshop or institute sponsored by AALL,

 - and the TS-SIS Executive Board determines the member's participation is significant enough to underwrite some or all of the expenses.

6. SELECTION & VOTING PROCEDURES.

In selecting the award recipient, the committee will consider how and to what extent each contribution extends the theoretical foundations or practical elements of the bibliographic control of and access to legal materials within and throughout law libraries regardless of library type or size.

Each candidate nominated for the award will be considered individually and confidentially and will be judged according to the criteria noted above. To ensure confidentiality, contact with members of the SIS other than the nominating party and the committee members should be avoided.

The committee chair will provide each committee member with the list of candidates and access to all materials submitted in the nomination process. In the interest of economy, some materials may be shared among the members of the committee. The chair will engage in discussion with the committee members to determine if any of the candidates should receive the award. The final vote on the award will be conducted by ballot, with each committee member having one vote. A candidate must receive a

The Marla Schwartz grant is a special educational grant intended for newer law librarians and graduate students in library/information studies programs.
