Comments

Boston University:

- We do not keep separate statistics on cataloging source for recataloged titles nor for non-book titles (with the exception of outsourced titles).
- Recataloged titles include reclass and recon project statistics

Russell Sweet

Columbia University:

- Each cataloging staff member devoted 10% of time to process offsite storage materials. Supporting cataloging staff members also perform monograph receiving in our local system.

Grace Ooi

Cornell University:

- Shared cataloging figures include titles added to existing Cornell University Library records.
- All authority records are NACO.

Jean M. Pajerek

George Washington University:

- Non-book titles outsourced records consist of bibliographic records added to the collection from the OCLC WorldCat collection sets, CIS, and Cassidy cataloging of Westlaw, Lexis, and Hein world trials sets.
- Cataloging does not maintain statistics by type of copy for recataloged materials.
- The cataloging dept. is current in its cataloging of recently published materials. The backlog consists of storage or rare materials for which brief records are available in the local catalog. Cataloging was able to clear 1337 titles this year from this growing collection. During fiscal year 2007/08, the library was not able to fill the additional cataloging position added to the department to address the increasing number of foreign language print materials in this collection; however, we remain hopeful that a renewed search will be successful.
- Near the end of the fiscal year due to the decline in the volume of updated materials received, a support staff FTE was reassigned from check-in of serials to copy cataloging DLC copy. In addition to the listed cataloging staff in 07/08, there were three and three-quarters support FTE and one student FTE with responsibilities (added volumes, binding, linking and labeling, quality control) which might be considered part of cataloging at other law libraries. Also at the end of the year, a student started a special project to catalog the Chinese materials from the storage collection.

Virginia Bryant

Los Angeles County Law Library:

- During the 2007/08 fiscal year, we started to reclass the library's whole collection by using the Library of Congress Classification System instead of Los Angeles County Law Library Class K.
- We continued our retrospective conversion for serial materials in-house, in addition to new book cataloging and maintenance cataloging.

Ming Lu

Ohio State University

- Retrospective conversion/reclass of older print materials (acquired prior to 1987) should be completed by end of 2008. The remaining materials (ca. 420 linear ft.) are foreign law materials in English and foreign languages, including a number of large sets.

Mary Rider Hamburger

Saint Louis University:

- We make no distinction in our statistics between LC and shared cataloging.
- The outsourced non-book serial titles are the Congressional Serial Set, etc.
- The outsourced non-book monographic titles are Marcive records.

Margaret M. Smith

Stanford University

- Total number cataloged does not include 1,309 individually cataloged Internet titles or the 21,810 Making of modern law titles that were batch loaded last year

Kathleen Winzer

University of Georgia:

- Non-book in-house copy cataloging not tracked by source of copy.
- Outsourced non-book monograph count includes purchased and loaded records for electronic resources: Documents without Shelves 1192, LLMC-Digital 276, HeinOnline World Trials 713, and CALI 695.

- Outsourced non-book serial count includes purchased and loaded records for electronic resources: Serials Solutions 3559.
- Major effort in spring to reclass all JX and foreign law materials. No distinction made between call numbers “formulated in-house” and those “copied from bibliographic utilities.”

Suzanne R. Graham

University of Iowa:

- Cataloging backlog is measured in number of titles, not in linear feet
- Electronic resources are included in non-book counts.

Karen L. Nobbs

University of Michigan:

- The totals on p. 1 are from annual statistics compiled in July 2008. The analysis on the following pages does not line up exactly because it is based on records as they appeared in our database in April 2009. Electronic/vendor figures are especially skewed, because in March 2009, we deleted all of our Serials Solutions bibs (approximately 8,000 records) and loaded new ones.
- We are in the thick of a reclassification project. This number reflects the number of titles reclassified to date (Apr. 9, 2009) and includes call numbers formulated in-house and supplied by our vendor.
- 61 of the 72 L.F in our backlog consist of non-Roman language material. We are currently in the process of selecting a vendor to catalog (and eliminate) this backlog.
- Our staff consists of: 1 60% FTE librarian (me), 1 FT librarian, 3 librarians who work primarily in other units but catalog part-time for a total of about 25 hours per week, 2 paraprofessionals who catalog along with other duties, 1 paraprofessional from another unit who catalogs 3-5 hours per week, and 1 FT support staff. Some copy cataloging is performed by students from the University’s School of Information.
- We will be loading OCLC institutional records soon.

Freda Baum

University of Minnesota

- Chart no. 13: total titles cataloged includes 7546 MRDF monographic/serial/unknown breakdown titles (23 shared, 9 original, and 7514 purchased/ outsourced)
- 12,494 total vols. were reclassified.

Mila Rush

University of Pennsylvania:

- Total number of titles cataloged includes 35 local (e.g., non-OCLC) records, and these outsourced records: 2,046 monographic Marcive records (undifferentiated as to format), 366 Lexis/Westlaw records from Cassidy, 174 new records from Serials Solutions, 1,528 LLMC records, 894 HeinOnline records from Cassidy, and 718 CALI records. All outsourced records except those from Marcive and Serials Solutions are reported as non-book monographs.
- We make no distinction between recon and recat.
- We do not report source of copy used for recon or recataloging, and do not report the source of call number for reclassified titles.
- Our vacant support staff position was finally filled, with slightly different duties.
