The Virginia Association of Law Libraries (VALL) held its annual meeting November 3-4, 2006, at the offices of Hunton & Williams in Richmond, Virginia. The theme was “Publishing and Marketing Initiatives.”

Its winter meeting was held February 9, 2007 at the offices of Williams Mullen in Virginia Beach, Virginia. The theme was “Building the Perfect License” with guest speaker Tracy Thompson of NELLCO. This meeting also served as VALL’s first experiment in videoconferencing allowing a number of its members to attend remotely from the northern and western regions of Virginia. Jeanne Ullian, VALL Treasurer at the time, wrote an excellent piece for AALL Spectrum highlighting the planning that went into the meeting.

Its spring meeting was held May 11, 2007 at the Ehrhorn Law Library, Liberty University School of Law, in Lynchburg, Virginia. The theme was “What are Lawyering Skills.”

VALL committees worked on numerous projects which were completed and some that will continue on into the New Year, including the redesign of the VALL Web site which will be a major focus in the 2007-08 term.

The members who gave their services on the executive board and to whom the association owes a note of thanks were: Marie S. Hamm, Evelyn M. Campbell, Kevin Butterfield, Jane Baugh, Jeanne Ullian, Fred Dingledy, Femi Cadmus and Michael Klepper.

The 2007-08 executive board members are: Kevin Butterfield, Leanne Battle, Jane Baugh, Dee Dee Dockendorf, Laurie Claywell, Femi Cadmus, Evelyn Campbell and Anthony Ikwueme.

An association is only as good as its members and it would be remiss not to thank our committees and committee chairs for their outstanding contributions for 2006-07. We are looking forward to continuing our tradition of excellence in 2007-08.

Kevin Butterfield, President
2007-08