ASIAN AMERICAN LAW LIBRARIANS CAUCUS
ANNUAL REPORT

The officers of the Caucus during 2012 – 2013 were Wei Fang, President; JootaeK Lee, Vice President/President-Elect; Fang Wang, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Chair of the Communication & Publicity Committee received trainings on maintaining the new Web site which is hosted by the AALL and was transferred to the new host server last year. Although there are some broken links and new functions that need to be fixed and developed, the basic site structure is fully constructed and functional.

The number of memberships is the same as last year. The Caucus recommended one program proposal for the AALL annual conference, but it did not get approved.

The membership & Mentoring Committee updated the publication list which includes all publications published by the Caucus members over the years.

The Caucus celebrated its 25th anniversary by hosting a symposium on how to promote diversity in the association and how to collaborate among caucuses as well as other relevant committees and interest groups. The Caucus has initiated efforts to work with the AALL Diversity Committee and other minority Caucus to better collaborate and address diversity issues. Mon Yin Lung, past president of AALLc, Rhea Ballard-Thrower, Chair of the Black Caucus, Evelyn Ma, Chair of Asian Law Interest Group of FCIL-SIS, and Beau Steenken, Chair of the AALL Diversity Committee participated in the symposium on July 14, 2013 during the AALL annual conference in Seattle.

Fang Wang was elected as Vice President/President-Elect for 2013 – 2014 and Eugene Hsue was elected for the Secretary/Treasurer position for 2013-2015 in the Business Meeting during the AALL conference in Seattle.
