The officers of the Jewish Law Librarians Caucus for 2013-2014 were Shira Megerman, Chair; David Hollander, Vice Chair/Chair Elect; Becka Rich, Secretary; Mitchell Silverman, Member-at-Large. As this was the first year of the caucus, it was agreed by the board for the chair and the chair elect to remain in their positions for one more year.

The Jewish Law Librarians Caucus was not able to meet at the 2014 annual meeting in San Antonio. This past year, Vice Chair/Chair Elect, David Hollander has been hard at work on a Jewish Law bibliography. It’s well under way (it is currently 123 pages). It has already yielded new and interesting information about Jewish law scholarship in U.S. law schools (for example, an explosion in quantity and complexity of such scholarship in the early 1990s). It is expected to be finished in December 2014, with an explanation on the caucus written by the Chair, Shira Megerman.
