The Michigan Association of Law Libraries (MichALL) submits this report of chapter activities for the 2013-14 fiscal year.

Gatherings. This year, MichALL held one face-to-face event this year, the Spring Educational Meeting. (After discussion and consideration, the Education Committee decided to forgo the Fall Dinner Meeting this year in order to regroup and evaluate the event.)

The Spring Educational Meeting was held on May 16, 2014 at the Auburn Hills branch of Thomas M. Cooley Law School. This year, the programs were oriented around the program theme “Career Ownership: What’s in Your Toolbox?” The morning programming began with Suzanne Alfastsen of Kelly Legal Registry speaking about current trends in legal hiring, followed by table discussion among attendees on the skills they have been developing and discarding. Benchmark Coach, Elizabeth Jolliffe, presented strategies for taking charge of one’s own career. The afternoon session included the business meeting, greetings from Amy Eaton (AALL Board Member), and storyteller Loretta Vitek advising participants on how to “Know Your Story -- Tell Your Story.” The afternoon concluded with a library tour given by Helen Levenson.

Elections. The association held elections during March 2014 for the offices of Vice President/President-Elect (Patrick Meyer), Treasurer (Matthew Sherman), and Member-at-Large (Michelle LaLonde). The association continued to use SurveyMonkey; this election was the third to be conducted in this way. Generally, members are finding electronic voting more convenient and appreciate the chance to vote anonymously.

Tax Status. In September 2013, thanks to the ongoing work of Virginia Thomas, the Internal Revenue Service reinstated MichALL’s Federal tax-exempt status under IRC section 501(c)(6).

Bylaws Revision. The Executive Board submitted revised bylaws to the membership for a vote, and the bylaws passed unanimously. The revised bylaws were accepted by AALL Bylaws Committee, which had reviewed them before the voting. MichALL is thus currently operating under these bylaws, and they replace the constitution under which MichALL had been operating previously.

Executive Board Membership. The members of the executive board during 2013-2014 were: Amy Ash: President; Kathleen Gamache: Vice President/President-Elect; Patricia Bravender: Treasurer; Alicia Dyer, Secretary; Yolanda Jones: Past President; Mark Heinrich: Member-at-Large; Michelle LaLonde: Member-at-Large.

Respectfully submitted,
Amy D. Ash
MichALL President, 2013-2014
