Major Activities for 2014/2015:
1. Committee member Dana Rubin's program proposal entitled "Thinking Ahead: Encouraging Strategic Thinking in the Library" was accepted for the 2015 AALL Annual Meeting in Philadelphia. The speakers will be Franklin Shen of Decision Strategies International and Greg Lambert, former member of the AALL Executive Board.
2. The committee marketed the Emerging Leader Award and received five nominations. Chair Michele Finerty, vice-chair Joanne Kiley, Julie Lim, and Patrick Butler will review, score, and select the award recipient(s).
3. The committee has scheduled a spring leadership webinar for May 28, 2015, on a topic of leadership development.
4. Chair Michele Finerty established communication with Suzanne Graham, chair of the Membership Development Committee (MDC), in order to begin a smooth transfer of responsibilities for the Mentor Match Program from the MDC to the 2015/2016 Leadership Development Committee.
5. Committee members Dana Rubin and Julie Lim continued developing the monthly column, "For Leader in You," included in the AALL E-newsletter posted each month to the AALL membership. This successful column features articles and other current information regarding leadership issues of interest to the AALL membership.

Proposed Activities for 2015/2016:
1. Market and plan the implementation of the Mentor Match Program
2. Market and plan the 2016 Leadership Academy and the mentoring of Academy fellows.
3. Develop and submit a program proposal for the 2016 AALL Annual Meeting.
4. Select and develop leadership topic and date for the spring 2016 webinar.
5. Continue the "For the Leader in You" monthly columns in the AALL E-Newsletter
