

American Association of Law Libraries Marcia J. Koslov Scholarship Application

Individuals eligible for this scholarship are AALL members who serve as librarians in state, court or county libraries. This scholarship provides funding for members to attend live seminars and conferences presented by the Institute for Court Management, the Center for Legal and Court Technology, the Equal Justice Conference or other programs that provide continuing education for state, court or county law librarians. One or more scholarships are awarded annually. Scholarships are restricted to members of the American Association of Law Libraries. Preference shall be given to permanent residents of the United States and Canada.

Applications for this Scholarship will be accepted at the Offices of the American Association of Law Libraries on or before April 1st. Recipients of the Scholarship will be announced in May and the awarded amounts will be disbursed in June. Early submission of the application packet should make it possible to verify that the file is complete well before the deadline. To help insure that the application is complete by the deadline, all documents should be submitted together if at all possible. This application and all supporting documents can be submitted via e-mail to scholarships@aall.org, or it can be mailed to the address at the end of this application. Incomplete and or late applications will not be considered. All answers will be kept confidential. The application must include:

- A copy of the seminar or conference information, which provides detail as to the content, faculty and educational goals of the program. Be sure that it also provides the registration and/or other fees necessary for attendance.
- A personal statement in which you include: financial information you feel the jury could use in determining your financial need, your interest in law librarianship, reason(s) for applying for this scholarship, and career goals as a law librarian. You may also include other pertinent information you would like the Scholarships Jury to know about you. Personal statements should be complete and well-written. Your personal statement should establish your financial need by thoroughly and clearly addressing your financial situation and need for a scholarship.
- A resume providing evidence of work experience, academic achievement and professional participation.
