AALL Announces 2014 Gallagher Award Winners

Chicago 4/15/2014—The American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) today officially named the three legal research professionals who will receive the 2014 Marian Gould Gallagher Distinguished Service Award—AALL's highest honor.

The 2014 winners are:

- Robert Berring, Jr., professor of law at the University of California Berkeley School of Law
- Janis Johnston, former director of the law library and associate professor of law at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, who retired in July 2013
- Carol Avery Nicholson, who worked as associate director for technical services at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill law library before retiring in 2011

Established in 1984 to acknowledge sustained service to law librarianship, exemplary association support and outstanding professional literature contributions, the Gallagher award is presented to individuals who have completed or are nearing completion of an active professional career.

The award recipients will be recognized for their contributions during the association luncheon at AALL's upcoming 107th Annual Meeting & Conference, which will be held in San Antonio, Texas, from July 12-15, 2014.
