AALL Names Newly Appointed Partner Organization Representatives

Chicago 6/26/2014—The American Association of Law Libraries announced six new member representatives today who will serve as the official conduits with four AALL partner organizations.

The newly appointed AALL partner organization representatives, whose term will be in effect until 2017, are:

- Sally Wise—American Bar Association, Council of the Section on Legal Education and Admission to the Bar
- Robert Bratton—American Library Association, Association for Library Collections & Technical Services Cataloging and Classification Interest Group, and Committee on Cataloging: Description and Access
- Lia Contursi—American Library Association, Association for Library Collections & Technical Services Cataloging and Classification Section, and Subject Analysis Committee
- Jean Pajerek—American Library Association. Association for Library Collections & Technical Services Machine-Readable Bibliographic Information Committee
- Ralph Monaco—Association for Library and Information Science Education
- Anne Burnett—International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions

The AALL Representative Program formalizes AALL's relationship with key partner organizations to help facilitate the dissemination of AALL's goals and thinking within groups whose activities and policies could affect AALL member libraries.

Representatives also work to discover and communicate relevant information about the partner organizations' needs to AALL members.

Members are appointed to representative positions based on their expertise in an area related to the partner organization, or due to their particular position within AALL.
