AALL Announces 2018 Gallagher Award Winner American Association of Law Libraries Honors Margaret K. Maes

CHICAGO – May 15, 2018 — The American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) today announces Margaret K. Maes as a 2018 recipient of the association’s highest honor, the Marian Gould Gallagher Distinguished Service Award.

Established in 1984 to acknowledge sustained service to law librarianship, exemplary Association support, and outstanding contributions to professional literature, the Gallagher Award is presented to individuals who have completed, or are nearing completion of, an active professional career.

“The recipients of the 2018 Marian Gould Gallagher Distinguished Service Award are pillars of the law librarian community,” said AALL President Greg Lambert. “Margie has contributed her remarkable knowledge and talent to the world of library science not only as an active participant in the Association and the profession generally, but through her numerous published articles on key issues impacting the field. We congratulate her on this well deserved honor.”

“It is truly an honor to be selected as a recipient of the prestigious Marian Gould Gallagher Distinguished Service Award,” said Maes. “AALL has been an essential part of my professional life for more than 40 years, and I’m fortunate to have had opportunities to work and collaborate with many outstanding law librarians in service to the Association. I sincerely appreciate this recognition.”

In addition to Maes, 2018 AALL Gallagher Award honorees include:

- Mark E. Estes
- Claire M. Germain
- Victoria K. Trotta

The Gallagher Award winners will be recognized at the upcoming 111th AALL Annual Meeting & Conference, to be held in Baltimore from July 14-17, 2018.
