AALL Announces 2018 Gallagher Award Winner American Association of Law Libraries Honors Victoria K. Trotta

CHICAGO – May 15, 2018 – The American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) today announces Victoria K. Trotta as a 2018 recipient of the association’s highest honor, the Marian Gould Gallagher Distinguished Service Award.

Established in 1984 to acknowledge sustained service to law librarianship, exemplary Association support, and outstanding contributions to professional literature, the Gallagher Award is presented to individuals who have completed, or are nearing completion of, an active professional career.

“The recipients of the 2018 Marian Gould Gallagher Distinguished Service Award are pillars of the law librarian community,” said AALL President Greg Lambert. “Tory has been active in the world of law librarianship for four decades, lending her time, insights and expertise to her local organizations, various AALL committees and countless industry peers. Tory is a wonderful example of professionalism and expertise, and we are proud to count her as a member of AALL.”

“Receiving the Gallagher Award from AALL is truly one of the highlights of my career,” said Trotta. “AALL is a vital institution supporting the profession of law librarians and the broader legal community and to be recognized by one’s peers in this way is an honor beyond measure. I thank you for this recognition and look forward to following the future contributions of all our colleagues who continue to animate the values of our wonderful Association.”

In addition to Trotta, 2018 AALL Gallagher Award honorees include:

- Mark E. Estes
- Claire M. Germain
- Margaret K. Maes

The Gallagher Award winners will be recognized at the upcoming 111th AALL Annual Meeting & Conference, to be held in Baltimore from July 14-17, 2018.
