

American Association of Law Libraries Scholarship Application

Scholarship you are applying for:

Scholarship applications will be accepted no later than April 1. Scholarship recipients will be announced in May and the awards will be disbursed in June. To help insure the application is completed by the deadline, all documents should be submitted at the same time. All answers will be kept confidential. This application and all supporting documents can be submitted via email to scholarships@aall.org. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

The application must include:

- A transcript (official or student copy) from the institution which granted your most recent degree.
- A letter from the Admissions Officer of the law school and/or the library school, stating the program for which you have been accepted and the date the courses begin or, if you have already begun pursuing your degree, a transcript (official or student copy) showing that you are a degree candidate in good standing with one quarter or semester remaining after the scholarship is awarded.
- Two letters of recommendation. Select persons who have knowledge of your abilities and experience.
- A personal statement in which you include: financial information you feel the jury could use in determining your financial need, your interest in law librarianship, reason(s) for applying for this scholarship, and career goals as a law librarian. You may also include other pertinent information you would like the Scholarships Jury to know about you. Personal statements should be complete and well-written. Your personal statement should establish your financial need by thoroughly and clearly addressing your financial situation and need for a scholarship.
- A current resume.
