The George A. Strait Scholarship and Fellows Committee is responsible for overseeing the George A. Strait Scholarship and Fellows program. The committee's charge is to develop a plan and define the application process and procedures for awarding both scholarships and fellowships. This charge and our plan for meeting it directly relate to AALL's commitment to diversity, one of its core organizational values.

The committee established the following action plan/goals for the year;

- #1) Design an application form and scoring sheet suitable for applicants for both the scholarship and the fellowship.
- #2) Initiate contact with potential host institutions to gauge interest, and to create a listing of names and contact information. We created a spreadsheet with academic institutions and non-academic entities (courts, law firms, and government agencies) as potential hosts for future Strait Fellows. We hope to make this a searchable database listing on the AALL website.
- #3) To begin a marketing campaign soliciting and reviewing applications in early 2019, with the expectation of making our first scholarship and fellowship awards at the 2019 annual meeting.
