AALL Announces Newly Elected Representatives To Its Executive Board

CHICAGO – Nov. 6, 2019 — The American Association of Law Libraries (AALL) announces four new representatives have been elected by AALL members to join the executive board. Diane M. Rodriguez, Mary Jenkins, Susan David deMaine and Stacy Etheredge will begin their tenure beginning in July 2020 when four of the current members roll off the board.

Their roles on the executive board will be as follows:

- Diane M. Rodriguez will serve as vice president/ president-elect from July 2020 to July 2021. She will then serve as president from July 2021 to July 2022 and immediate past president from July 2022 to July 2023. Rodriguez is the assistant director at California's San Francisco Law Library.
- Mary Jenkins will serve as secretary of the board from July 2020 to July 2023. Jenkins is the director of research services and senior law librarian at Accufile, Inc. in Lexington Massachusetts.
- Susan David deMaine will serve as a board member from July 2020 to July 2023. deMaine is Ruth Lilly Law Library's associate director and lecturer of law at Indiana University's Robert H. McKinney School of Law in Indianapolis.
- Stacy Etheredge will serve as a board member from July 2020 to July 2023. Etheredge is the interim law library director and associate professor of law at the University of Idaho College of Law in Boise.

"Diane, Mary, Susan and Stacy all offer unique skill sets and bring their individual track records of professional excellence and dedication to their new positions on the AALL executive board," noted Michelle Cosby, president of AALL. "I am confident the newly elected executive board members will serve honorably and to the best of their ability as AALL continues to lead the field of law librarianship into the future."

About AALL
