Registration Opens for the 2020 AALL Annual Meeting & Conference in New Orleans

CHICAGO – Feb. 20, 2020 — Registration has officially opened for the American Association of Law Libraries’ (AALL) 113th Annual Meeting & Conference in New Orleans, Louisiana. This year’s conference will be held at the New Orleans Ernest N. Morial Convention Center from July 11-14. The AALL Annual Meeting & Conference theme, “Unmasking Our Potential”, furthers AALL’s goal of enhancing talent.

The AALL Annual Meeting is the premier educational and networking event that, each year, attracts more than 1,500 attendees. The 2020 meeting will offer three days of exceptional legal information education featuring more than 70 sessions in six Body of Knowledge (BoK) domains, with broad programming that includes:

- Onboarding to build attorney engagement
- Using artificial intelligence to teach legal technology competencies
- Navigating law librarianship without a legal education
- Managing implicit bias
- And many other topics.

The meeting kicks off with keynote Jim Kwik, a learning expert who has served for two decades as a mental health coach to students, entrepreneurs, and educators, as well as an advisor to some of the world’s leading CEOs and celebrities. Kwik’s dynamic, intuitive and actionable strategies help sharpen the mind, enhance focus, and aim to help you reach your fullest potential. He hosts the weekly podcast “Kwik Brain with Jim Kwik,” and his first book, “Limitless: Core Techniques to Improve Performance, Productivity, and Focus,” will be released in April.

“My focus as AALL President is to ensure that we are using our potential to the maximum,” noted Michelle Cosby, president of AALL and director and associate professor at Temple University Law School Library. “From our keynote speaker to the 70 education sessions, AALL is offering our members countless opportunities to not only unmask, but to maximize, our potential. My first AALL Annual Meeting was in New Orleans in 2007, and I am so excited that we will be there again this year. This is a not-to-be-missed event and I look forward to seeing everyone in New Orleans this summer.”

AALL thanks its generous sponsors and business partners: platinum sponsors LexisNexis and Thomson Reuters, silver sponsor Bloomberg Law, bronze sponsor

Fastcase, and friends of AALL sponsor LexisNexis IP. Additional sponsorship opportunities are still available.
