WASHINGTON UPDATE

COVID RELIEF PACKAGE ENACTED INTO LAW

On December 22, 2020, the U.S. House of Representatives passed a \$900 billion coronavirus relief package, followed by passage in the U.S. Senate. President Donald Trump signed the bill into law on December 27. Among its many provisions, the bill allocates additional money for the Paycheck Protection Program for small businesses, nonprofits, and self-employed individuals. In addition, individuals will receive a second round of direct payments via check from the federal government.

AALL will provide more information about the impact of this bill for your law libraries and for the legal information industry in the January issue of the AALL Washington eBulletin.

SENATE JUDICIARY SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIR INTRODUCES DISCUSSION DRAFT TO REFORM COPYRIGHT LAWS

AALL is reviewing the Digital Copyright Act of 2021, a draft bill to update U.S. copyright law put forward by Senator Thom Tillis (R-N.C.), chair of the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on Intellectual Property. The draft bill includes many provisions that may impact law libraries, including improving the exemptions available to libraries for circumventing technological protection measures to provide access to works. The draft also proposes providing a limitation on liability for libraries that use a work after being unable to locate a copyright owner.

AALL will continue to follow discussion on this draft and will keep you informed of changes that will impact your law libraries.

REGISTER

As the world becomes even more interconnected, how do librarians keep up with the growing international and comparative legal information needs of today's increasingly transnational and multilingual legal professionals and law students? The Index to Foreign Legal Periodicals (IFLP), one of AALL's premier publications, can help meet the never-ending need for accurate and diverse information from around the globe. During this webinar, learn how to search IFLP effectively, how to utilize the Index when teaching and training others, and how to better understand IFLP's potential as a low-cost/high-impact resource for your legal research toolkit. This webinar will be moderated by Kevin Durkin-Ortiz, IFLP managing editor at UC Berkeley. Speakers include Charles Bjork, international and foreign law reference librarian at Georgetown University Law Library, Marcy Hoffman, associate law library director and foreign and international law librarian at Berkeley Law, and Kristen Rowlett, international law librarian at Texas A&M University School of Law.

A rectangular button with a white background and an orange border. The word "REGISTER" is written in orange, uppercase letters. The right side of the button is partially obscured by a solid orange triangle pointing to the right.

Whether you're looking for a new job, applying for leadership positions, scholarships, awards, or grants, or supporting others in those efforts, writing persuasive letters is unavoidable for law librarians. How can you make your writing stand out and make the best case? In this month's "So You Wanna...?" series, Savanna Nolan will sit down to discuss recommendation letters and personal statements with recent AALL Awards Committee Chair, Cathy Lemann. What makes a winning letter? What are some common pitfalls? Is there a way we can make the process as pain-free as possible? This series is brought to you by the Professional Engagement, Growth & Advancement SIS and the AALL Continuing Professional Education Committee.
