THINKING OF OUR MEMBERS IN TEXAS

The historic Arctic outbreak and resulting infrastructure collapse has brought devastation to the residents of most Texas communities, home to many AALL members.

To our members living in Texas, we are thinking of you and your families during this crisis and also praying for you. If there is anything that AALL can do, please reach out to us at 312.205.8022 or via email.

To our members outside of Texas, below are some recommendations for how you can help.

- One of the best ways to offer aid is by donating to a mutual aid fund. These grassroots organizations allow neighbors to support each other based on their individual needs, such as Mutual Aid Houston, DFW Mutual Aid, Austin Mutual Aid.
- Residents who have power and heat have opened up their homes to friends and neighbors without consistent energy, but Airbnb also has Open Homes, a disaster relief program that allows people to offer their homes to strangers in need of emergency housing.
- Feeding Texas, a network of food banks across the state, is accepting donations to help feed Texans and distribute clean drinking water through this crisis.
- In Houston, you can donate to Kids' Meals Inc., an organization that provides meals to hungry kids year-round.
- Animal shelters and rescue groups across the state have also struggled to keep homeless critters warm and fed. Smaller organizations are in particular need of aid, such as Texas Panhandle Pet Savers and Pets Needing Parents Rescue in West Texas.

This webinar will highlight different partnership models and introduce current opportunities and resources. Speakers include Brooke Doyle (WebJunction), Sarah Larsen (Minnesota State Law Library), and Rebecca Haas (Anne Arundel County Public Library).

The Ferengi Rules of Acquisition provide an amusing framework for exploring how, when, and why to advocate for ourselves and our libraries. Speakers include Benjamin Carlson (University of Connecticut School of Law), Sherry Leysen (Chapman University Fowler School of Law), Deborah Schander (Seton Hall Law), Genevieve Tung (University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School), and Carla Wale (University of Washington).
