2021 EXECUTIVE BOARD NOMINATIONS DUE THIS FRIDAY!

The AALL Nominations Committee is looking for candidates for the position of vice president/president-elect (2022-2023; serving on the Board until 2025), candidates for the position of Treasurer (2022-2025), and candidates for two open seats on the Executive Board (2022-2025).

The Nominations Committee encourages you to nominate yourself or an AALL colleague to be a candidate for the Executive Board. Members of the AALL Executive Board ensure that all decisions made are consistent with AALL’s mission, vision, and strategic plan, and they are passionate about continuing to increase the value proposition of the Association.

To nominate yourself or an AALL colleague, access the nomination form on AALLNET. Nominations are due this Friday, February 12, 2021 by 11:59 p.m. EST.

AALL STATE OF THE PROFESSION SURVEY RESPONSES DUE THIS FRIDAY

DON’T MISS OUT ON YOUR DISCOUNT!

The AALL State of the Profession Special Committee is pleased to share the second edition of the AALL State of the Profession Survey. Invitations were sent to all members working in U.S. law libraries and legal information groups. The purpose of the survey is to capture the current legal information landscape concerning COVID-19, technology, demographics, budgets, user services, operations, and more. Additional information is available on AALLNET. Respondents can opt in to win a $50 gift card as well as a discount on the final report.

If you did not receive your invitation (sent from survey@aall.org), please check your spam folder. AALL would also like to receive input from nonmembers who work in legal information settings. Members and nonmembers should contact Association Research, Inc., (ARI is AALL’s consultant for this survey) at ari@associationresearch.com for an invitation. Responses are due by 11:59 p.m. Central this Friday, February 12.

AALL INCLUSION, DIVERSITY, AND EQUITY AWARENESS SURVEY / RESPONSES DUE THIS FRIDAY

The Inclusion, Diversity, Equity and Awareness (IDEA) Special Committee, whose charge includes creating a "roadmap for AALL to commit to Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity initiatives for the future," requests your feedback on a survey. Respondents will be asked about their own experience in the workplace and whether organizations provide adequate support for diversity, equity, and inclusion.
The IDEA Committee will use the results of the survey to recommend ways to dismantle the barriers that exist within law librarianship and within AALL. This survey should take about 20-30 minutes to complete and all responses are completely anonymous. Please submit your response by this Friday, February 12, 2021.

AALL ADVOCACY TRAINING IS THIS THURSDAY!

GOVERNMENT LAW LIBRARY FUNDING: ADVOCACY TRAINING FOR LAW LIBRARIES

- Thursday, February 11, 2021 / 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (CST)
- Register Now
- Free for members and nonmembers

There is still time to register for AALL's "Government Law Library Funding: Advocacy Training for Law Libraries," to learn successful advocacy strategies you can implement at your own institutions. Government law libraries are funded in a variety of ways: through local, state, or federal budgets, court fees and fines, subscriptions, or a combination of all of those. Many court systems are currently re-evaluating the impacts of court fees and fines on members of the public, and government budgets are facing significant cuts due to the pandemic. Now more than ever, government law librarians and their allies must effectively advocate for full funding of their libraries. This training will be moderated by Jean L. Willis, assistant director for support services at the Sacramento County Public Law Library. Speakers include Miriam D. Childs, director at the Law Library of Louisiana and Suzanne B. Corriell, circuit librarian at the U.S. Court of Appeals Library for the Fourth Circuit.

DEVELOPING INNOVATIVE LEGAL INFORMATION PROJECTS

- Tomorrow (Tuesday, February 9, 2021) / 3:00 p.m. - 3:45 p.m. (CST)
- Register Now
- Members only; space is limited
As law librarians and legal information professionals, you are well positioned in your organizations to create and develop innovative projects that enhance access to legal information. Law libraries can offer new tools and provide access to unique online collections to help users find information in person and remotely. Whether you are thinking of starting a new project or are already in the middle of one, discussing it with colleagues may help generate innovative ideas, elicit different perspectives, and answer questions—including ones you may not have considered. During this informal discussion, share best practices and discuss common challenges in developing and implementing new initiatives, and find some inspiration for your own organization. This chat will be co-moderated by Tom Gaylord, Northwestern University School of Law and Amy Small, Texas State Law Library.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE STATE: FINDING THE REGULATIONS THAT RUN EVERYTHING

- Wednesday, February 17, 2021 / 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (CST)
- Register Now
- Members - Free / Nonmembers - $60

With a new president and executive department taking office, administrative law research will be very important this year. Navigating agencies and regulatory law can be intimidating for students and practitioners alike, and conveying this information can prove challenging for instructors. Do you find administrative law intimidating? Have you ever wondered--is there an agency for that? This session will demystify administrative legal research and reveal effective strategies for teaching and using administrative law materials. This webinar will be moderated by Savanna Nolan (University of Georgia School of Law). Speakers include Jonathan M. Hawkins (University of Illinois Champaign-Urbana), Heather J.E. Simmons (University of Georgia School of Law), and Pia M. Hunter (University of Illinois Champaign-Urbana).

AALL Body of Knowledge Domains: Research + Analysis, Teaching + Training

NEWER LAW LIBRARIAN MEETUP

- Tuesday, February 23, 2021 / 2:00 p.m. - 2:45 p.m. (CST)
- Register Now
- Members only; space is limited

AALL members continue to adapt to the shifting landscapes in their workplaces and across the profession, often in fresh and creative ways. If you're newer to law librarianship or to AALL, you have a unique perspective on the path you've taken, what excites you most about the profession, and how you were prepared (or not prepared) for entering the field. Connecting with your colleagues is more important than ever--join us for our next informal virtual coffee chat, co-moderated by Daisy De Anda (Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP) and Nicholas Beams (Connecticut Judicial Branch Law Library System).

THE LAW, LIBRARIANS, AND BROWN V. BOARD OF EDUCATION

- Wednesday, February 24, 2021 / 11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. (CST)
- Register Now
The Black Lives Matter movement, the recent mob assault on the U.S. Capitol, and the major ongoing incidents of police brutality illustrate the need to revisit the U.S. Supreme Court’s unanimous ruling in the landmark civil rights case, Brown v. Board of Education. Researchers, librarians, lawyers, law students, and faculty continue to be at the forefront of the struggle for equality. During the webinar, three civil rights experts will discuss the decision’s ongoing impact, civil and human rights issues of today, and how to engage in social justice initiatives. This webinar will be moderated by Marjorie Crawford (Rutgers Law School) and Yolanda Patrice Jones (Florida A&M University College of Law). Speakers include John C. Brittain (University of the District of Columbia David A. Clarke School of Law), Reginald Mitchell (FAMU College of Law), and Ryan Peter Haygood (New Jersey Institute for Social Justice).

AALL Body of Knowledge Domains: Professionalism + Leadership at Every Level, Teaching + Training

Law librarians and legal information professionals are in an excellent position to help close the growing access to justice gap. In particular, academic and government law libraries that are open to the public may be interested in partnering with public libraries to provide greater access to legal information and support for navigating legal services. Law librarians can also assist public librarians with expanding their knowledge and improving their skills to respond to legal questions. This webinar will highlight different partnership models and introduce current opportunities and resources. Speakers include Brooke Doyle (WebJunction) and Sarah Larsen (Minnesota State Law Library).

As follow-up to the webinar, you are welcome to enroll in WebJunction’s Facilitator Training that begins on March 8 and runs through March 26. This is a free, three-week training on how to guide peer learning groups through the Creating Pathways to Civil Legal Justice series of self-paced courses. The training is designed for anyone passionate about learning with others to augment the role libraries can play in access to justice issues. This training is part of WebJunction’s Improving Access to Civil Legal Justice through Public Libraries training initiative in partnership with the Legal Services Corporation.

THOMSON REUTERS PARTNER WEBINAR: STATE OF THE LEGAL MARKET IN 2021
Last year taught us many things including the need for accurate, timely, and meaningful information to make sound decisions. For law firms, this means understanding the market forces impacting their businesses, and leveraging the most up-to-date competitive intelligence to drive tactical and strategic decisions. This session will focus on the economic forces in the legal market, from both a quantitative and a qualitative perspective, and will offer suggestions for potential areas of focus. Speakers include Bill Josten (Thomson Reuters Enterprise Content - Legal) and Jennifer Dezso (Thomson Reuters Client Relations Market Insights & Thought Leadership).

LEARN MORE ABOUT CPE PROGRAM GRANTS

Do you have an idea for an educational program but are not sure how to fund it? Whether you are planning a program as an individual AALL member or part of a chapter, SIS, caucus, or member institution, you could qualify for an AALL/Bloomberg Law Continuing Education Grant. Learn how you can distribute your program to a broad audience and get the financial support you need. Join us for an informal conversation about the grant application process and hear from grant recipients regarding their experiences. This discussion will be co-moderated by Michele Knapp (University of San Diego) and Mariah Ford (Vanderbilt University).

THE FERENGI MINDSET: LIBRARY LEADERSHIP UNDER THE RULES OF ACQUISITION

Many law librarians do not feel that they have the power, savvy, or information needed to act as strong advocates for their libraries and push back against administrators and other stakeholders when being asked to make changes to their budget or services. Star Trek’s Ferengi species have an answer to this dilemma—a list of rules that guide these ruthless alien entrepreneurs to maximize profit with minimal risk. The Ferengi Rules of Acquisition provide an amusing framework for exploring how, when, and why to advocate for ourselves and our libraries. Presenters will address how to approach communication with stakeholders and vendors, build strategic partnerships, and secure needed funds and resources with a little more guile. Speakers include Benjamin Carlson (University of Connecticut School of Law), Sherry Leysen (Chapman University Fowler School of Law), Deborah Schander (Seton Hall Law), Genevieve Tung (University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School), and Carla Wale (University of Washington).

WASHINGTON UPDATE

GPO SEEKS FEEDBACK ON LEGISLATIVE CHANGES TO THE FDLP

The U.S. Government Publishing Office (GPO) is renewing its efforts to ask the U.S. Congress to enact changes to the Federal Depository Library Program (FDLP). As a first step in this process, GPO is gathering feedback from librarians—including law librarians and legal information professionals—about its proposed legislative changes. AALL encourages members who are interested in GPO's proposal to provide feedback to GPO by March 5, 2021. For background, you may wish to watch GPO's January 28 webinar on Proposed Legislative Changes for the FDLP. If you have feedback on GPO's proposals you would like to share with AALL, please email Janet Peros, chair of the AALL Government Relations Committee or Emily Feltren, AALL director of government relations.

2021 AALL AWARDS / NOMINATE YOURSELF OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW BY MARCH 1

The purpose of the AALL Awards Program is to recognize law librarians, institutions, companies, and partners for significant contributions to and innovations in the legal information profession. Recipients are selected by committees/juries and will be honored during the 2021 AALL Virtual Conference.

The deadline to nominate yourself, a colleague, library, or company (including your own) is March 1, 2021. Nominations/applications/entry forms may be found on the individual award webpages.

APPLY FOR AN AALL SCHOLARSHIP OR SHARE WITH A FRIEND OR COLLEAGUE

AALL is committed to providing opportunities for your professional growth. Each year, the Association awards thousands of dollars in scholarships to law school and library school students as well as to AALL members. The following scholarships are now open for applications:

- Library School Scholarships (for those with or without JDs)
- Law School Scholarships (for those with MLS/MLIS and those seeking dual JD/MLIS)
- Scholarships for Library School Graduates Seeking a Non-Law Degree
- LexisNexis John R. Johnson Memorial Scholarship
- George A. Strait Minority Scholarship & Fellowship
- Marcia J. Koslov Scholarship for members to attend continuing education programs for state, court, or county law librarians

The deadline for applications is May 1, 2021. For additional questions, please contact AALL at scholarships@aall.org.
APPLY FOR AN AALL LEXISNEXIS RESEARCH GRANT

The AALL LexisNexis Research Grant Jury is accepting applications through May 1 for grants from the AALL Research Fund (an endowment established by LexisNexis). The jury may allocate a maximum of $5,000 between one or more applicants seeking funding for research that advances AALL's research agenda, which seeks to stimulate "a diverse range of scholarship related to and supportive of the profession of law librarianship."

For inspiration, review the list of topics awarded grants in past years and explore the 16 broad research topics outlined in AALL's research agenda.

If you have a research project that may benefit from this grant, review the complete guidelines and apply. As the guidelines state, the research should be completed within one year and the final product published. Grants will be awarded and announced by the end of December.

AALL/BLOOMBERG LAW CONTINUING EDUCATION GRANT

Does your chapter, special interest section, committee, or caucus have an educational event that needs funding? If so, consider applying for an AALL/Bloomberg Law Continuing Education Grant. Grant requests are accepted at various times throughout the year. The next deadline for grant applications is May 13, 2021.

TINA TCHEN ANNOUNCED AS 2021 AALL VIRTUAL CONFERENCE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Tina Tchen, President and CEO of Time’s Up, will be the keynote speaker for the 2021 AALL Virtual Conference--Leading with Wisdom & Insight, which will take place this July.

A high-powered lawyer, Tchen's career accomplishments have established her as a strong advocate for gender equality. She spent eight years at the White House, serving as chief of staff to First Lady Michelle Obama, assistant to President Barack Obama, and executive director of the White House Council on Women and Girls, leading the first-ever White House Summit on Working Families and the first-ever United State of Women Summit.

During her keynote, Tchen will share her unique perspective and insights on workplace culture, the power of diverse teams, and the importance of keeping equality at the forefront of the global agenda. We hope to see you virtually for AALL 2021.

AALL STAFF NEWS

Pam Reisinger, AALL’s Director of Meetings, will be leaving her position at AALL after more than 23 years of service, effective Friday, February 26, 2021. Many of you have worked with Pam in some way during her time at AALL and she would like to share the following message with you.

"I have been honored to spend the last 23+ years working for this Association that has offered me so much, including the amazing members I have loved getting to know. Whether I opt to move forward with full retirement, seek other opportunities, or maybe do a little of both, I want you to know that the most difficult part of this transition is walking away from my AALL family—I will miss working with you all so much. I am also honored to have been a part of this incredible headquarters staff team. Thank you for all of the support you have given me throughout my time with AALL.

Please join us in thanking Pam for her dedication to AALL and wishing her well in all her future endeavors. You can reach out to Pam directly at preisinger@aall.org.

COMMUNITY WEBINARS & EVENTS

LIVE INTERVIEW SERIES: SO, YOU WANNA PRACTICE CULTURAL COMPETENCE?

- Wednesday, February 10, 2021 / 12:00 p.m. - 12:45 p.m. (CST)
- Register Now
- Open to all AALL Members

This “So You Wanna...?” interview will follow up on our popular interview from last May, where we began to discuss cultural competence. In light of events such as the Black Lives Matter protests and the deaths of George Floyd and Breonna Taylor, cultural competence is now more important than ever. Now that we’re aware of the concepts, what should we actively be doing to manage communication in our classrooms and workspaces about such an emotional topic?

PEGA-SIS’s Savanna Nolan will sit down with Clanitra Stewart Nejdl and Dr. Michele Villagran to discuss the steps we can take to practice cultural competence. Nejdl is the head of professional development and the research services librarian at Vanderbilt's law library. She has been part of many diversity panels, including presenting at the 2020 Teaching the Teachers conference on "Integrating Diversity into Legal Research Instruction in the COVID Era: Tips and Techniques for Classroom Management." Dr. Michele Villagran is an assistant professor at San Jose State University's School of Information and CEO of CulturalCo, LLC. As a lead expert and advanced certified facilitator in cultural competence and unconscious bias, her research and consulting focuses on cultural competence, unconscious bias, social justice, and emotional intelligence issues within LIS.

This series is brought to you by the Professional Engagement, Growth & Advancement SIS and the AALL Continuing Professional Education Committee.

ALL-SIS WEBINAR: A CONVERSATION ABOUT CREATING EQUITY & INCLUSION IN OUR METADATA

- Wednesday, February 24, 2021 / 1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. (CST)
- Register Now
- Open to all AALL Members

The ALL-SIS Continuing Education Committee is happy to announce "Inclusion: Teaching, Terms, and Community," a series of webinars focused on how specific issues of equity and inclusion are being recognized and addressed by academic law libraries.

What if a user was searching for information on immigration, and found that your library classified the information as related to "aliens" or, even worse, "illegal aliens"? Would that further isolate some of the people using your library catalog? This conversation will discuss what can and should be done now to make our catalogs more inclusive to all. It may take years for inappropriate subject headings to be changed officially. Let's talk about how we can make our metadata better now, and how we can influence others to do the same. This webinar will be moderated by Alicia Pearson (Albany Law School). Speakers include Grace Lo (Stanford Law School); Margarita Parez Martinez (Miami School of Law Library); and Cate Kellett (Yale Law School).
