THREE PEOPLE WITH WHOM YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAVE DINNER?

Oliver Wendell Holmes, Catherine the Great, and Garrison Keillor. Two great thinkers on government and life, and a writer with a great voice to moderate.

PERSONAL HERO?

President Jimmy Carter. I admire the environmental actions he took while in office and his peace and democracy efforts after his presidency.

WHAT MAKES A GREAT LEADER?

Someone humble by example, who is relatable but inspiring.

LAST PHOTO YOU TOOK WITH YOUR PHONE?

Eastern State Penitentiary in Philadelphia while on a weekend revisit to the 2015 AALL Annual Meeting city.

YOUR FAVORITE FILM ADAPTATION OF A BOOK?

Ironweed (1987 film from the William Kennedy Pulitzer Prize-winning novel)—Oscar-nominated turns by Meryl Streep and Jack Nicholson in an atmospheric film true to the excellent book.
