SARAH REIS

- FOREIGN & INTERNATIONAL LAW LIBRARIAN
- NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY PRITZKER SCHOOL OF LAW
- PRITZKER LEGAL RESEARCH CENTER
- CHICAGO, IL

SUPERPOWER YOU WISH YOU HAD AND WHY?

Fluency in every language! It would make foreign legal research much easier, travel more rewarding, and open up a whole world of literature that hasn't been translated.

FAVORITE THING ABOUT YOUR JOB?

I love working with international LLM students because I learn so much about their home countries. I've kept in touch with many of them. [Also, in case my library's director is reading this, attending the International Association of Law Libraries annual conference has been one of the highlights of my time as a librarian thus far, and I hope to get to do it again!]

FAVORITE TRAVEL DESTINATION?

Heidelberg, Germany! I traveled there several times growing up, but those trips were always in the spring. It has been 15 years since I last visited. I'd love to visit during the other three seasons and see how things have changed.

IF YOU WROTE AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY, WHAT WOULD ITS TITLE BE AND WHY?

I'm terrible at titling things and always outsource coming up with creative titles to one of my colleagues, Clare. But since she is not here right now, I'm going to say Pepper & Me. Pepper is my black cat, who has traveled with me all around the country over the past decade. But [spoiler alert!] it would have a happier ending than Marley & Me.

WHAT INSPIRES YOU MOST?

I am inspired by my colleagues because they are all excellent at their jobs. They inspire me to be a better librarian and are always willing to discuss their experiences and brainstorm things with me. I'm lucky to get to work with such a wonderful, supportive group!
