

AALL MARCIA J. KOSLOV SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Individuals eligible for this scholarship are AALL members who serve as librarians in state, court or county libraries. This scholarship provides funding for members to attend live seminars and conferences presented by the Institute for Court Management, the Center for Legal and Court Technology, the Equal Justice Conference or other programs that provide continuing education for state, court or county law librarians. One or more scholarships are awarded annually. Scholarships are restricted to members of the American Association of Law Libraries. Preference shall be given to permanent residents of the United States and Canada.

Scholarship applications will be accepted no later than April 1, 2022. Scholarship recipients will be announced in June and the awards will be disbursed shortly thereafter. To help ensure the application is completed by the deadline, all documents should be submitted at the same time. All answers will be kept confidential. This application and all supporting documents can be submitted via email to krundle@aall.org. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

APPLICATION MUST INCLUDE:

- A copy of the seminar or conference information, which provides detail as to the content, faculty and educational goals of the program. Be sure that it also provides the registration and/or other fees necessary for attendance.
- A personal statement in which you include:
 - Financial information you feel the jury could use in determining your financial need (e.g. cost of living, familial financial obligations, childcare expenses, student loans, etc.).
 - Your interest in law librarianship and reasons for applying for this scholarship.
 - Your career goals as a law librarian.

You may also include other pertinent information such as work and family commitments that you would like the Scholarship Jury to consider when evaluating your application. Personal statements should be complete and well-written. Your personal statement should establish your financial need by thoroughly and clearly addressing your financial situation and need for a scholarship. You should also detail any leadership roles you have had in AALL or other library associations.

- A current resume providing evidence of work experience, academic achievement and professional participation.
