HAPPY THANKSGIVING FROM AALL

AALL wishes you a day filled with gratitude and happiness. As a reminder, the AALL office will be closed Thursday, November 25 and Friday, November 26. We will resume normal business hours on Monday, November 29. Happy Thanksgiving from AALL!

2021 AALL SALARY SURVEY NOW AVAILABLE

The 2021 AALL Biennial Salary Survey & Organizational Characteristics report (AALL Salary Survey) is now available. In its 15th iteration, the survey provides the only comprehensive, comparative salary information designed by and for legal information professionals in academic, law firm/corporate, and government settings.

The survey was distributed to 651 law libraries around the country with 308 surveys completed for a response rate of 47.3 percent. The complete survey is available to AALL members as a complimentary digital edition. Print copies may be purchased for $250 by nonmembers and $130 for members. Details are available on AALLNET.

AALL UPDATES

VOLUNTEER FOR AN AALL 2022-2023 COMMITTEE OR AWARD JURY / APPLY BY DECEMBER 15

Volunteer to serve on an AALL committee or award jury and contribute to your profession as well as to your Association. We encourage members from all library types and all levels of experience to volunteer. Please review the committee and award jury charges before applying. If you currently serve on an AALL Committee or Award Jury, you are only eligible to apply for a 2022-2023 committee or award jury if your term ends in July 2022. To confirm when your current appointment ends, please review the committee activity in your AALL profile.

The call for Annual Meeting Program Committee (AMPC) volunteers is included in this call for volunteers. If you are interested in serving on AMPC, you will be asked to answer additional questions on the form. Please review the AMPC charge and content area descriptions before applying for this Committee.
WHY VOLUNTEER?

- See your work in action
- Impact the Association and the profession
- Build on your leadership experience
- Expand your professional network

SELECTION PROCESS

In January, the AALL Vice President, Beth Adelman, and 2022-2023 AMPC Chair, Jessica dePerio Wittman, will select volunteers to serve on the AMPC. All other volunteers (including those not selected for the AMPC) will be considered by the Appointments Committee to serve on a committee or award jury when the Committee meets in January/February 2022.

Take your involvement in AALL to the next level and complete the volunteer application for the 2022-2023 leadership year. Applications must be submitted by 11:59 p.m. (EST) on December 15, 2021. If you have any questions, please contact leadership@aall.org.

VOLUNTEER TODAY

2022 AALL AWARDS NOMINATIONS OPENS DECEMBER 1

The 2022 AALL Awards nominations will open next month on December 1 and will be open through March 1, 2022. The AALL Awards program publicly recognizes the achievements of law librarians, institutions, companies, and partners for significant contributions and innovation in the legal information profession. Start thinking about who you would like to nominate now—it could even be yourself. Recipients are selected by committees/juries and will be recognized during the 2022 AALL Annual Meeting & Conference in Denver.

AALL NEW VOICES / SHARE YOUR POST BY DECEMBER 3

AALL’s New Voices gives you the opportunity to share your story and expertise. Whether you recently joined AALL or are a longtime member aiming to become more involved in the Association, AALL is looking for your insights on any aspect of law librarianship.

Possible subjects include a legal interest of your choice, favorite resource, go-to stressbusters, starting a new role, leadership tips, and diversity, equity, and inclusion. Submissions should be about 100-600 words. Accepted posts will appear on Members Open Forum, in the monthly eNewsletter, and on AALL’s social media feeds (Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn). If you’re interested in being involved in the next round, please share your post with Heather Haemker, director of marketing & communications, with the subject line “New Voices Project” by 5:00 p.m. (CST) on December 3, 2021.

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH

NEXT TUESDAY IS THE DEADLINE TO SUBMIT PROGRAM PROPOSALS FOR THE 2021 AALL ANNUAL MEETING / DUE NOVEMBER 30

Contribute to and help advance the legal information profession while positioning yourself as a thought leader by submitting a program or workshop proposal for the 2022 AALL Annual Meeting & Conference—Advancing Justice for All—to be held July 16-19, 2022, in Denver, Colorado.

We are currently planning an engaging, in-person Conference in Denver. Please go through the quick guide for getting started, explore additional resources for program proposers (including the must-have program topics identified by AALL members), and use the online Program and Workshop Proposal Collection site to develop your proposal. AALL remains committed to ensuring a dynamic and diverse lineup of programs designed to meet your needs. We look forward to seeing your proposals. Proposals are due next Tuesday, November 30.
LEXISNEXIS RESEARCH GRANT APPLICATIONS DUE DECEMBER 1

The AALL LexisNexis Research Grant Jury is accepting applications through next Wednesday, December 1 for grants from the AALL Research Fund (An Endowment Established by LexisNexis). The jury may allocate $5,000 between one or more applicants seeking funding for research that advances AALL’s Research Agenda, which seeks to stimulate "a diverse range of scholarship related to and supportive of the profession of law librarianship."

Established in July 2000, the grant funds research projects that create, disseminate, or use legal and library-related information. For inspiration, review the list of topics awarded grants in past years and explore the 16 broad research topics outlined in AALL's Research Agenda. If you have a research project that may benefit from this grant, review the complete guidelines and apply. As the guidelines state, the research should be completed within one year and the final product published. Grants will be awarded and announced by the end of December.

AALL VIRTUAL COFFEE CHAT: WINNING THE AALL/LEXISNEXIS CALL FOR PAPERS / DECEMBER 14
The AALL/LexisNexis Call for Papers is an annual scholarship competition that requests AALL members and students in related degree programs submit their recent scholarship on any subject relevant to law librarianship. Join the 2021 winners and Nicole Downing, vice chair of the AALL/LexisNexis Call for Papers Committee, on Tuesday, December 14 from 3:00 p.m. - 3:45 p.m. (CST), for a discussion about award-winning scholarship and how you can prepare to enter the competition for yourself.

Cost: Free and open to AALL members only; space is limited.

THE MOTH, AALL LEADERSHIP EDITION: UNLEASH THE POWER OF STORYTELLING / DECEMBER 15

This program will give a brief introduction to storytelling technique basics, and then have panelists share true stories as they remember them. Similar to The Moth podcast, anyone wishing to tell their story will need to pitch their idea, and the pitched stories need to relate to the theme of Leadership. Join us on Wednesday, December 15 from 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (CST) to watch masterful storytelling in action, share in the collective wisdom around leadership, and hone the essential leadership skill of telling compelling, meaningful stories.

Cost: Members - Free / Nonmembers - $60

THE WAYFINDERS AMONG US: FIRST-GEN PROFESSIONALS IN AALL / JANUARY 19

First-generation professionals are the first in their families to cross a threshold into a professional career. Many face socioeconomic issues not experienced by their colleagues and can face a sense of isolation and a steep learning curve with regard to professional norms. Join us on Wednesday, January 19 from 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (CST) to hear from panelists who are first-gen professionals from academic, government, and law firm settings, who will discuss their triumphs and challenges, and provide insights into navigating their unique career paths. They will also discuss establishment of the First-Gen Professionals Caucus, which serves as a vehicle for professional development, mentorship, and coordination of recruitment efforts for first-gen law and library students.

Cost: Members - Free / Nonmembers - $60

COMMUNITY CORNER

#WEAREAALL / GET TO KNOW JENNY R.F.F. SILBIGER

AALL has created a fun video campaign to get to know our members. These video spotlights provide an opportunity for members to share a little something about themselves, what they love about AALL, and their hopes for the profession. Watch the latest video featuring Jenny R.F.F. Silbiger, state law librarian for the Hawaii Supreme Court Law Library, and AALL member since 2008. She also serves as access to justice coordinator for the Hawaii State Judiciary. Silbiger shares her experiences volunteering for AALL, and how volunteering for committees (or award juries) is not only providing a service to fellow colleagues, but it’s also about community building and making connections—an opportunity that is truly rewarding. If you’d like to participate in this project, please contact Heather Haemker, AALL’s director of marketing & communications, with the subject line “#WeAreAALL.”
PEGA-SIS WEBINAR: LIVE INTERVIEW SERIES: SO, YOU WANNA PRACTICE MINDFULNESS? / DECEMBER 8

With so much going on in the world, many of us are feeling burned out and exhausted. Can mindfulness be a tool to help us re-center? How is mindfulness different from meditation? Join Savanna Nolan on Wednesday, December 8 from 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (CST) as she discusses these questions with Mindfulness Caucus member and certified Koru Mindfulness teacher Heather Simmons. What is a mindfulness practice and how is it different from meditation? What steps can we take today to live more mindfully?

Open to all AALL members.
