HAPPY HOLIDAYS FROM AALL

AALL wishes you and your family a wonderful Holiday Season and a Happy New Year! As we move into 2022, we wish you peace, health, happiness, and prosperity for a great New Year.

AALL offices will be closed Thursday, December 23 and Friday, December 24. The office will resume regular operations on Monday, December 27. The office will also be closed Thursday, December 30 and Friday, December 31 for New Year's.

YOUR INPUT IS NEEDED / SURVEY RESPONSES DUE TODAY

As the COVID-19 pandemic continues to impact both our personal and professional lives, AALL is seeking input on your current situation as we plan the 2022 Annual Meeting & Conference. We invite you to participate in a brief, anonymous survey that should take approximately one minute to complete. We appreciate your feedback and ask that you complete the survey by 11:59 p.m. (CST) today.

COMPLETE THE SURVEY

The AALL Continuing Professional Education Committee launched the Microlearning Video series this year to provide short, focused learning opportunities for members. The Committee would like to hear your feedback regarding your experiences with these videos and to get your opinion on the direction as well as future topics for this video series. If you have watched any of these videos, please complete this brief, anonymous survey today. We appreciate your feedback.

2021 AALL SALARY SURVEY NOW AVAILABLE

The 2021 AALL Biennial Salary Survey & Organizational Characteristics report (AALL Salary Survey) is now available. In its 15th iteration, the survey provides the only comprehensive, comparative salary information designed by and for legal information professionals in academic, law firm/corporate, and government settings. The release of the report was also covered by InfoDocket and Information Today.

The survey was distributed to 651 law libraries around the country with 308 surveys completed for a response rate of 47.3 percent. The complete survey is available to AALL members as a complimentary digital edition. Print copies may be purchased for $250 by nonmembers and $130 for members. Details are available on AALLNET.

AALL NEW VOICES / SHARE YOUR POST BY JANUARY 7

AALL's New Voices gives you the opportunity to share your story and expertise. Whether you recently joined AALL or are a longtime member aiming to become more involved in the Association, AALL is looking for your insights on any aspect of law librarianship.

Possible subjects include a legal interest of your choice, favorite resource, go-to stressbusters, starting a new role, leadership tips, and diversity, equity, and inclusion. Submissions should be about 100-600 words. Accepted posts will appear on Members Open Forum, in the monthly eNewsletter, and on AALL's social media feeds (Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn). If you're interested in being involved in the next round, please share your post with Heather Haemker, director of marketing & communications, with the subject line "New Voices Project" by 5:00 p.m. (CST) on January 7, 2022.

ADVOCACY

2022 AALL CHAPTER ADVOCACY TRAINING / JANUARY 27

Many AALL chapters are faced with local issues that are important to their members. Chapters are well-positioned to advocate for law libraries and the legal information profession, including to support government law library funding and the enactment of the Uniform Electronic Legal Material Act. Join us on Thursday, January 27 from 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. (CST) to learn a variety of advocacy strategies and resources that chapters can employ to ensure greater access to legal information and to promote continuous improvement in access to justice. Whether you are interested in starting a new advocacy program in your chapter or growing an existing program, you will come away with practical guidance and tools to support your chapter's advocacy efforts.

Cost: Free and open to AALL members and nonmembers
