BETH ADELMAN IS THE 2022-2023 PRESIDENT
OF AALL

AALL is excited to announce that Beth Adelman has taken on the role as the Association's president for 2022-2023. Beth's term as president officially began at the conclusion of the Association's July 16-19 Annual Meeting & Conference in Denver. Beth is currently director of the law library & vice dean for legal information services at the Charles B. Sears Law Library at the University at Buffalo, SUNY

As AALL's president, one of Beth's goals is to focus on outreach by increasing awareness on the broad roles of law librarianship to attract students and future colleagues to the profession. "My priorities are increasing the pipeline to the profession, which also ties in with ensuring there is more diversity in the profession," said Adelman. "The first step will be to identify and build relationships with key stakeholders, such as library school and law school leaders to understand the steps that need to be taken to increase students' awareness of law librarianship as a profession."
