(Notes)	PDF copies of the “Laws of Nebraska” are stored on the Nebraska Library Commission servers. These PDF copies are produced by scanning the print version of the work and are saved as standard PDF files.				As of 2016, the court only produces the reports in electronic format. Although no statute or rule specifically mandates this, the court has internal procedures for ensuring preservation of the electronic record. As noted in “authentication,” the files are saved in PDF/A format. The files are saved on multiple servers.	As of 2016, the court only produces the reports in electronic format.
